The National Reformer ,1864

Concerning Creativity John H.

Berthrong,1998-10-01 This work examines the philosophies and theologies of three thinkers Chu Hsi Alfred North Whitehead and Robert C Neville separated by time space and culture In so doing John H Berthrong provides a suggestive and successful comparison of creativity as a cross cultural theme while introducing Neo Confucianism as a sophisticated dialogue partner with modern Western speculative philosophy and theology Creativity lies at the heart of the discourse of Chu Hsi 1130 1200 and Alfred North Whitehead For both creativity emerges as an attempt to illustrate the organic unity of the world without resorting to an appeal to a source for creativity beyond the concrete actuality of the cosmos Subtle critics such as Robert C Neville argue that process thought is fatally flawed because Whitehead separated creativity from the other crucial elements of his system By interjecting the Chinese Neo Confucian synthesis of Chu Hsi it is possible to show how creativity can be re integrated into process discourse as creative synthesis Adventure ,1919 Pacific Worlds Matt K. Matsuda,2012-01-19 Asia the Pacific Islands and the coasts of the Americas have long been studied separately This essential single volume history of the Pacific traces the global interactions and remarkable peoples that have connected these regions with each other and with Europe and the Indian Ocean for millennia From ancient canoe navigators monumental civilisations pirates and seaborne empires to the rise of nuclear testing and global warming Matt Matsuda ranges across the frontiers of colonial history anthropology and Pacific Rim economics and politics piecing together a history of the region The book identifies and draws together the defining threads and extraordinary personal narratives which have contributed to this history showing how localised contacts and contests have often blossomed into global struggles over colonialism tourism and the rise of Asian economies Drawing on Asian Oceanian European American ancient and modern narratives the author assembles a fascinating Pacific region from a truly global perspective Transmitters and Creators John Makeham,2020-03-23 The Analects Lunyu is one of the most influential texts in human history As a putative record of Confucius s 551 479 B C E teachings and a foundational text in scriptural Confucianism this classic was instrumental in shaping intellectual traditions in China and East Asia until the early twentieth century But no premodern reader read only the text of the Analects itself Rather the Analects was embedded in a web of interpretation that mediated its meaning Modern interpreters of the Analects only rarely acknowledge this legacy of two thousand years of commentaries How well do we understand prominent or key commentaries from this tradition How often do we read such commentaries as we might read the text on which they comment Many commentaries do more than simply comment on a text Not only do they shape the reading of the text but passages of text serve as pretexts for the commentator to develop and expound his own body of thought This book attempts to redress our neglect of commentaries by analyzing four key works dating from the late second century to the mid nineteenth century a period substantially contemporaneous with the rise and decline of scriptural Confucianism the commentaries of He Yan ca 190 249 Huang Kan 488 545 Zhu Xi 1130 1200 and Liu Baonan 1791 1855 and Liu Gongmian 1821 1880 Humanities ,1986 Chinese Narratology II Yang Yi,2023-11-30 As the second volume of a two volume set on Chinese narratology this title investigates the quintessential characteristics of the Chinese narrative style with a focus on image and perspective The first chapter introduces two opposing concepts of perspective focalization and blind spot to connect perspective with traditional aesthetics highlighting the mutual relation of the nonexistent and the existent The author believes that both the narrator and perspective are central to the narrative forms and strategies adopted by Chinese writers and that study of the narrator and perspective is integral to understanding the cultural aesthetic and philosophical connotations of the narrative text and the spiritual world of the author Drawing on perceptual phenomenology the chapter on image broadens the extant knowledge of image and points out that image narration is unique to Chinese narratology and central to Chinese aesthetics The final chapter illustrating the achievements of influential critics of classical Chinese novels proving that these critics have contributed to the canonization of the genuine masterpieces of Chinese narrative literature The book is a must read for scholars and students interested in narrative theory Chinese culture and literature and dialogue between Chinese and Western narratological studies Formations ,1986
