Mary Hastings Bradley, an American author and journalist, was deeply influenced by her travels and experiences abroad. Her journalism may have cultivated an acute sense of both empathy and curiosity about diverse cultures, which permeates this novel. Having faced the constraints often placed on women in her time, her writing often reflects an undertone of defiance against societal norms, pushing against boundaries in both her narrative and historical context. I recommend The Fortieth Door to readers interested in early 20th-century literature that explores the dynamics of East-West relations and the quest for deeper meaning amid societal constraints. Bradley's adept storytelling and evocative prose capture an era of both adventure and introspection, making it a compelling read.
