The Interpretation Of Love And The Truth:

The Meaning of Love Vladimir Solovyov, 1985-10 Written in 1894 CW 4 Materialism can never provide a satisfactory explanation of the world For every attempt at an explanation must begin with one s forming thoughts for oneself about the phenomena of the world Materialism therefore takes its start with the thought of matter or of material processes Thus it already has two different realms of facts before it the material world and thoughts about it It seeks to understand the latter by grasping them as a purely material process It believes that thinking takes place in the brain in about the same way as digestion does in the animal organs Just as it attributes to matter mechanical and organic effects so it also ascribes to it the capability under specific conditions to think It forgets that it has now only transferred the problem to another place It attributes the capability of thinking not to itself but to matter An in doing so it is back again at its starting point The materialistic view is not able to solve the problem but only to shift it pp 18 19 Of all of his works The Philosophy of Spiritual Activity is the one that Steiner himself believed would have the longest life and the greatest spiritual and cultural consequences It was written as a phenomenological account of the results of observing the human soul according to the methods of natural science This seminal work asserts that free spiritual activity understood as the human ability to think and act independently of physical nature is the suitable path for human beings today to gain true knowledge of themselves and of the universe This is not merely a philosophical volume but rather a warm heart oriented guide to the practice and experience of living thinking Readers will not find abstract philosophy here but a step by step account of how a person may come to experience living intuitive thinking the conscious experience of a purely spiritual content During the past hundred years since it was written many have tried to discover this new thinking that could help us understand the various spiritual ecological social political and philosophical issues facing us But only Rudolf Steiner laid out a path that leads from ordinary thinking to the level of pure spiritual activity intuitive thinking in which we become co creators and co redeemers of the world This volume is arguably the most essential of Steiner s works The thoughts in this book establish the foundation for all of Anthroposophy The Philosophy of Spiritual Activity is a translation from German of Die Philosophie der Freiheit GA 4

The Book of Truth, in Honour of Love and the Apostles of Life. (Ideas on Mutual Instruction.-The Sacramental Power of Truth.) Thomas O'DONOGHUE, 1850 Theology, History, and Biblical Interpretation Darren Sarisky, 2015-01-29 The Christian Bible serves as the sacred scripture of the Christian community It is read regularly by many people around the world today as it has been for centuries But how should one interpret this text This reader presents a variety of perspective on how to relate historical and theological considerations when approaching the Bible It encourages students and scholars to ponder how historical and theological categories shape one s view of three crucial realities the text of the Bible the human subject who reads the text and the nature of the exchange between the two in the practice of reading As historical and theological categories are applied to these realities are they mutually exclusive or can they be combined in some way This reader encourages students and scholars to explore these important questions by bringing together a selection of some of modernity's most influential discussions of the issues as well as some of the present day's most distinguished attempts to weigh in on the debate

The Truth about Love Elizabeth Currie, 2005

The Truth About Love is an original philosophical theory which presents a comprehensive holistic model of the normal human psyche. The purpose of the book is to reveal to the average person their own nature. The Truth About Love is written in question and answer form which gives the advantage of allowing the reader to focus quickly on questions of personal interest and to reflect on each issue before moving on to a new concept. The first section Love The Key comprises the central theory which explains the phenomenon of love. You learn how love transcends its reputation as a romantic attachment to another person and gives you a basic premise for understanding most aspects of human nature. The second section Emotion and Feeling gives a complete explanation of emotion and for the first time an explanation of feeling apart from emotion. This new knowledge is used to examine old philosophical questions about human nature such as altruism, creativity and happiness. The third section Motivation relates the central theory to your everyday life, giving structure and meaning to your thoughts and actions in a simple and concise way. Also in this section is perhaps the most important application of the concepts of love, emotion and feeling in an explanation of self love. In conclusion you will discover how self love leads to optimum mental health and how this affects other areas of your life. The Truth About Love provides answers that you cannot find in textbooks but that you ask yourself everyday. They are simple questions and simple answers that will change your life.

Love, Truth & Perception Kathy Oddenino,1993 Poetry from the Heart: Love, Spirit, and Truth Volume I,

Light of Truth and Fire of Love Gary D. Badcock,1997 The doctrine of the Holy Spirit has often been a neglected theme in Christian thought In Light of Truth and Fire of Love Gary D Badcock attempts to redress this theological imbalance and to reassert the centrality of the doctrine of the Spirit in Christian theology Badcock begins by surveying what both the Old and New Testaments have to say about the Spirit Next he traces the history of the theology of the Spirit examining a number of crucial episodes and questions in the field of pneumatology in the history of Christian thought and then proceeds to develop a contemporary theology of the Spirit Badcock goes on to relate this theology of the Spirit to the theological enterprise initiated by Karl Barth earlier in this century the return to the doctrine of the Trinity as the framework for Christian reflection Setting forth the positive and negative results of much of contemporary trinitarian theology Badcock ultimately makes a case for a balanced doctrine of the Word and the Spirit in which neither is subordinated to the other

Speaking the Truth in Love Daniel R. Berger, 2007-01-01 Approaching public communication from a liberal arts point of view Speaking the Truth in Love provides a distinctly Christian perspective of rhetoric Written and oral rhetoric are interwoven throughout the text Two foundational ideas control the majority of the text The first is from Plato's Phaedrus as stated by Paul in Ephesians 4:15 speaking the truth in love The second is from the Apostle Peter in 1 Peter 4:11 if anyone speaks he should do it as one speaking the very words of God The spiritual responsibility of communicating truth in accordance with the nature of God especially the virtue of love is an awesome privilege and opportunity Sound content spoken or written eloquently with charisma will enable words to have a maximum impact The text is designed to be a culminating learning experience for undergraduate communication programs or as an introductory text for graduate programs involving public communication Beginning with a philosophy of language meaning and interaction argument is built against secular deconstructive thought where everyone has a different truth based on language Alongside philosophy we explore ethics and theology from an evangelical perspective Following this a brief history outlines rhetorical thought from pre testament classics to today Based upon these ideas we take a closer look at communication theory as it relates to public communication Finally the text addresses the practice of both written and oral communication

Hate and Love in Psychoanalytical Institutions Jurgen Reeder, 2020-10-13 In Hate and Love in Psychoanalytic Institutions Jurgen Reeder investigates the professional superego of the psychoanalyst This superego designates a prescriptive and prohibiting role that the individual must play within the parameters of a certain occupational sphere The prescriptive aspect works like a professional ideal and in this respect the superego can be said to sustain a professional ethos or spirit commanding what the professional should know and what his or her relations to clients and colleagues should resemble It helps to bind the members of the analytical community together The prohibiting aspect installs a vigilant inner eye It offers necessary protection against detrimental aberrations but it also evokes fantasies of critical or condemning colleagues who might have insight into what transpires within the walls of the analyst's own private practice leading to a reluctance to communicate openly about the analytical experience. In this sense the professional superego contributes to the paranoization of collegial communication a circumstance that has a hampering effect on spontaneity and creativity in both clinical and theoretical work. Jürgen Reeder's groundbreaking research uncovering the dynamics of the professional superego in psychology, psychotherapy and psychoanalysis can be applied to other professions as well including social work, medicine, education, law and the ministry.

Love Itself Is Understanding Matthew A. Rothaus Moser, 2016-11-01 Hans Urs von Balthasar 1905-1988 sets out to reunite Truth and holiness by returning the saints to their proper place at the heart of philosophy, theology and metaphysics. Love Itself is Understanding is one of the first systematic treatments of Balthasar's theology of the saints. Matthew Rothaus Moser presents Balthasar as an alternative to Idealist philosophy a thinker who develops a religious metaphysics in which the saints' practices of prayer and contemplation are the chief mode of knowing that the Truth of Being is divine love. Love Itself is Understanding casts new light on dominant themes in Balthasar's thought and invites a renewed vision of the theological and metaphysical significance of the spiritual practices of prayer, obedience and charity.
