Expositions. Miscellaneous Andrew Fuller, 1848 American Eloquence; Consisting of Orations, Addresses, and Sermons ... Jonathan Maxcy, 1845 Carl Schmitt William Rasch, 2019-07-23 This important new book places Carl Schmitt's critique of liberal political theory in a broader historical context than is usually done. His belief in the centrality of the European state since the seventeenth century derives from various sources including medieval Scholastic theology and nineteenth century post Hegelian social and political theory. Schmitt's famed political theology aims at justifying the necessity of a strong secular state as the safeguard of a political community against the encroachment of legally protected interest groups that shield themselves behind pre political rights. William Rasch neither condemns nor champions Schmitt's various attacks on liberalism but does insist that the tension between society as the realm of individual rights to pursue private pleasures and the state as the placeholder for something traditionally called the common good is a conundrum that is as important now as it was during the Weimar era in Germany. Reappraisal of some of the pillars of liberal dogma are as much in order as are fears of their demise. The Works of Jonathan Edwards: Volume II □ II Revised Jonathan Edwards, Rights in Context Professor Reza Banakar, 2013-02-28 This volume offers snapshots of how rights are debated and employed in public discourse to reshape legal and political relations at the beginning of the twenty first century. It explores how rights are used to challenge the state of affairs by individuals and groups who seek justice and the strategies devised to defy the existing rights by those who wish to recast the social and political order. This volume discusses rights firstly in relation to actual events and issues faced by policy makers, courts, international agencies or ordinary people. These range from the demands of minority groups living in the West to freely practice their culture and or religion to the threat of terrorism, the regulation of asylum rights, the investor's rights to disclosure and the rights of artists to freedom of expression. Secondly, rights discourse is examined in relation to attempts to redefine the form and content of rights, for example by banning the right to wear religious symbols in public institutions or detaining terrorism suspects without trial. Thirdly, rights discourse is explored in connection with the attempts to develop new notions of rights such as human security which can more effectively respond to the challenges of late modern societies. Finally, the statuses of rights in sociological theory and socio legal research are briefly discussed and analysed. A Reading Guide to Pauline Baird Jones' Romantic Suspense Novels Pauline Baird Jones, 2020-01-28 Mystery Suspense Romance Comedy Discover the ultimate companion to Pauline Baird Jones' romantic suspense novels. A Larger Hope?, Volume 1 Ilaria L. E. Ramelli, 2019-07-15 In the minds of some universal salvation is a heretical idea that was imported into Christianity from pagan philosophies by Origen c 185-253/4 Ilaria Ramelli argues that this picture is completely mistaken She maintains that Christian theologians were the first people to proclaim that all will be saved and that their reasons for doing so were rooted in their faith in Christ She demonstrates that in fact the idea of the final restoration of all creation apokatastasis was grounded upon the teachings of the Bible and the church's beliefs about Jesus' total triumph over sin, death and evil through his incarnation, crucifixion, resurrection and ascension Ramelli traces the Christian roots of Origen's teaching on apokatastasis She argues that he was drawing on texts from Scripture and from various Christians who preceded him theologians such as Bardaisan, Irenaeus and Clement She outlines Origen's often misunderstood theology in some detail and then follows the legacy of his Christian universalism through the centuries that followed We are treated to explorations of Origenian universal salvation in a host of Christian disciples including Athanasius, Didymus the Blind, the Cappadocian fathers, Evagrius, Maximus the Confessor, John Scotus Eriugena and Julian of Norwich
