The Man Behind The Man The Engagement:

The Man Behind the Tudors Kirsten Claiden-Yardley, 2020-03-20 Shed s some light on a rather remarkable man who was really behind the curtain during the reigns of quite a few English kings Adventures of a Tudor Nerd Thomas Howard 2nd duke of Norfolk lived a remarkable life spanning eighty years and the reigns of six kings Amongst his descendants are his granddaughters Anne Boleyn and Catherine Howard and his great granddaughter Elizabeth I The foundations of this dramatic and influential dynasty rest on Thomas shoulders and it was his career that placed the Howard family in a prominent position in English society and at the Tudor royal court Thomas was born into a fairly ordinary gentry family albeit distantly related to the Mowbray dukes of Norfolk During the course of the fifteenth century he and his father would rise through the political and social ranks as a result of their loyal service to Edward IV and Richard III In a tragic turn of events all their hard work was undone at the Battle of Bosworth and his father was killed fighting for King Richard Imprisoned for treason and stripped of his lands and titles Thomas had to start from the beginning to gain the trust of a new king He spent the next thirty five years devoting his administrative military and diplomatic skills to the Tudors whilst rebuilding his family fortunes and ensuring that his numerous children were well placed to prosper The Howards are one of the most intriguing families of the 16th century and this book opens up a chapter that hasn t been much written about The Tudor Blogger

A critical engagement with theological education in Africa Johannes J. Knoetze, Alfred R. Brunsdon, 2022-02-07 The higher education landscape has arguably become one of the most arduous to traverse More so in the African context where a host of variables continuously challenge educators to reflect critically on their philosophies and practices as they engage an ever changing audience In this book a critical engagement with theological education in Africa is offered As the book originates from South Africa it is presented as a South African perspective although contributors are situated across the African continent and abroad The common denominator is that all contributors are in some way or another invested in theological education in Africa The main contribution of this collaborative work is to be sought in the insights it offers on four main areas of theological education A historical and current orientation on theological education in Africa some paradigm shifts in theological education in Africa ministerial formation needs versus theological education challenges and a critical reflection on elective models and methods The book presents the original and innovative research of scholars for fellow scholars involved in theological higher education as it is grounded in the respective fields of interest of each contributor It contributes to a better understanding of the complex African theological higher education landscape that is also mindful of post COVID 19 realities Methodologically the work draws on a combination of methods including literature studies empirical work and in some cases sectional offerings from doctoral studies as indicated in the various chapters The Engagement

Hand, and Mr. Ely's Engagement Richard Marsh, 2021-07-03 Excerpt Now I am James Southam at one time of Dulborough but although I do answer to that description a very clear something told me that if I did hear of anything to my advantage by applying to anybody then the age of miracles was not yet done with An examination of the dead man s pockets disclosed the somewhat curious fact that they contained nothing but a massive gold watch without a maker s name a sheaf of bank notes which unenclosed in any cover was simply thrust in the breast pocket of his coat and consisted of no less than one hundred ten pound notes some gold and silver coins four pounds thirteen shillings if I remember rightly in a plain leather purse and in an apparently forgotten corner of his right hand waistcoat pocket was a torn scrap of a visiting card Notwithstanding which when the inquiry closed I was conscious that more than one person in court and a good many out of it cherished the impression that I had had a hand indirectly if not directly in the murdered man s despatch the verdict of the coroner s jury being that Jonas Hartopp otherwise known as Duncan Rothwell had been murdered by some person or persons unknown
