The Neglected Journey What Are We Waiting For:

Not Forgotten Laura C. Brandenburg, 2023-07-27 Do you feel worn out misunderstood or forgotten on your journey of trying to conceive Do you feel confused as you wrestle with God's will and plan for your family Do you question whether your faith is not big enough or if you're even praying the right prayers In Not Forgotten Laura C Brandenburg invites you to see your story through the lens of nine barren women in the Bible Along with familiar names like Sarah Hannah and Elizabeth Laura draws us deeper into Scripture to see unnamed women like the Shunammite woman and Samson's mother Through each testimony Laura unravels five characteristics that demonstrate the heart of God You'll be equipped with several powerful tools How to cultivate a heart of faith How to gain a better understanding of God's character How to overcome feelings of inadequacy or faithlessness How to trust God with your deepest desires Pulling from her own nine year journey with infertility Laura writes with compassion and understanding as she encourages readers to dig deeper into the Bible and to stand on the truth of God's character May you leave your fear failure and forgotten feelings behind to walk in freedom as you seek God's desire for your own family

Abandoned and Forgotten Evelyne Tannehill, 2006 Much has been written about World War II but not often do we hear about the immeasurable suffering of the Germans who wanted no part of Hitler's regime Abandoned and Forgotten is the memoir of a young girl growing up in the then German province of East Prussia by the Baltic Sea Orphaned at the age of nine and left to fend for herself in a hostile world Evelyne Tannehill witnessed firsthand what happens when law and order break down and self preservation becomes the only thing that matters Her journey is a poignant example of how resilient the human spirit can be even in the face of war's greatest horrors

Forgotten Trails Ron Anglin, 2021-10-13 Indian inhabitants laid out the basic travel routes in central Washington's Grand Coulee country probably 10 000 to 12 000 years ago In the early 1800s horse oriented Native Americans continued to use these routes a host of white frontiersmen followed in their footsteps Though their passage is now largely forgotten many individuals prominent in Western history traveled this way and kept excellent records In Forgotten Trails the most noteworthy and exciting of these accounts have been edited into a single volume Included are the adventures of Lewis and Clark and the Canadian explorer David Thompson early missionaries such as the Reverend Samuel Parker railroad surveyors and scientists Paul Kane and other artists as well as fur traders miners stockmen military roadbuilders and homesteaders The book ends with the celebrated Grand Horse Roundup of 1906 and an enthralling Native American perspective These firsthand accounts together with a chapter on traditional Plateau Indian culture and an oral history describing 19th century Indian life render a portrait of the region's trails and travelers during its flamboyant and exciting frontier era Forgotten Trails is an essential contribution to the literature of the Columbia Basin

Death and Deprivation on the Forgotten Sumatra Railway James H. Banton, 2021-09-15 James Henry Banton was born in Burton on Trent in 1920 He worked as a driver of a steam locomotive used to transport beer and supplies to breweries around the town When war broke out Jim joined the RAF eventually becoming a Leading Aircraftsman as part of the RAF's ground crew. During this time Jim had met the love of his life Dorothy Mason. Jim didn't know that when he left Gladstone Dock in Liverpool he would not see home or his family including Dorothy for another four and a half years. Eventually posted to the Far East he was captured by the Japanese in the hills on the island of Java. Used as slave labour, starved, beaten and witnessing death on a daily basis, he was later put to work on the building of the Sumatra Railway. The Far East Prisoners of War became known as the Forgotten Army; however, there has been little reference paid to the Sumatra Railway compared with other theatres of WW2. With this in mind, the prisoners who worked on the Sumatra Railway could be considered to be the Forgotten of the Forgotten Army. In August 1945 the world celebrated victory in Europe; however, for the FEPOWs the war dragged on. As parts of the world were trying to return to normality, Jim and his colleagues were being made to dig their own graves in the Sumatra jungle. The FEPOWs' lives hung in the balance as orders had been issued to murder all POWs should mainland Japan be invaded by the Allies. This book is Jim's story and it is hoped it will also be a reminder not only of the sacrifice of the Forgotten Army but also highlight the suffering of the Forgotten of the Forgotten Army. The Sumatra Railway POWs Forgotten Highways Nicky L.

Brink, Stephen R. Bown, 2011-02-01. Traversing the historic trails of the Rockies today is done in much the same manner as it was two centuries ago: primarily on foot with heavy packs with little better defence against mosquitoes or the elements. Although accurate maps are available and modern technology such as global positioning systems stand as a bulwark to a complete wilderness experience, in many cases it is as difficult and challenging to cross these mountain passes or even more so than it was two centuries ago. Routes such as Athabasca Pass are far less travelled today than they were in the golden era of the fur trade. If our society has become so rich that we continually seek out physical and mental challenges in the wilderness adventure and eco travel, perhaps it would be a sign of respect to follow at least for a while in the footsteps of those who in many ways paved the way for generations to come. We began to form the idea of hiking all the significant historical trails to see what we could learn from the early pathfinders about the difficulty of wilderness life and travel. What window would be opened to times past in a land where the terrain has remained essentially unchanged from the authors' introduction.

Journey Kathleen Wilcox, 2015-03-09. Scripture speaks of peace, love and joy. Yet too often our days are filled with worry, stress and complaining. How do we get there from here? Much of what we're missing can be found in the fear of the Lord, an ancient yet relevant gift many Christians have overlooked. Join the author on a journey to explore the seven powerful principles of fearing God. You may be surprised by all you discover. Pumafish - Abandoned in the Arctic Leif Anders
