The Journal of American Folklore, 1888 Black Diamond Fall Joseph Olshan, 2018-09-18 From the acclaimed author of CLARA'S HEART and CLOUDLAND comes a rich literary mystery based and united by two real events that occurred at Middlebury College the disappearance of a student during winter break and the vandalism of the Robert Frost Homestead located on one of the outer campuses Luc Flanders has just finished playing a game of pond hockey with his college roommates when he realizes he has lost something precious and goes back to the ice to find it He never returns and the police department in Middlebury Vermont are divided in their assessment of what may have happened to him Some feel that Flanders left on his own accord and is deliberately out of touch Others including detectives Nick Jenkins and Helen Kennedy suspect that harm may have come to him As the search for Luc Flanders widens and intensifies suspicions about several different people including his Middlebury College roommates and ex girlfriend arise Unfortunately Sam Solomon an older man with whom Luc has been having a secret relationship cannot prove his whereabouts during the hours when the younger man may have disappeared and Solomon too comes under suspicion As Luke Flanders disappears the Robert Frost house near the Middlebury campus is vandalized And there seems to be a link between the two events that the police are determined to discover Alternating points of view between Luc Flanders Sam Solomon Luc s mother and detective Nick Jenkins BLACK DIAMOND FALL races to a disturbing and astonishing conclusion in a lush literary mystery that could only come from the mind of acclaimed author Joseph Olshan

The Black Spiritual Movement Hans A. Baer, 2001 Spiritual churches in the United States represent one of several religious movements that African Americans have adopted in their efforts to cope with mainstream society In this groundbreaking work first published in 1984 Hans A Baer explores the richness and creativity of Black Spiritualism setting forth an illuminating ethnography of the movement that corrects numerous stereotypes of African American religion Baer shows that the Spiritual churches blend diverse elements borrowing aspects of African American Protestantism American Spiritualism Roman Catholicism Voodoo and black ethno medicine occasionally even including aspects of Islam Judaism New Thought and Ethiopianism He describes not only the history structure ideology and practices of the churches but also the process of syncretism within them and their role within the African American community In addition Baer examines how the Spiritual movement juxtaposes elements of protest and accommodation to racism and class stratification in U S society This second edition includes a new preface and a new epilogue in which Baer discusses his methodology in researching the Black Spiritual Movement describes his meetings with pastors and congregation members and summarizes his most recent research in the field
