Star Wars and the History of Transmedia Storytelling Sean Guynes, Dan Hassler-Forest, 2025-10-01 Star Wars has reached more than three generations of casual and hardcore fans alike and as a result many of the producers of franchised Star Wars texts films television comics novels games and more over the past four decades have been fans turned creators Yet despite its dominant cultural and industrial positions Star Wars has rarely been the topic of sustained critical work Star Wars and the History of Transmedia Storytelling offers a corrective to this oversight by curating essays from a wide range of interdisciplinary scholars in order to bring Star Wars and its transmedia narratives more fully into the fold of media and cultural studies The collection places Star Wars at the center of those studies projects by examining video games novels and novelizations comics advertising practices television shows franchising models aesthetic and economic decisions fandom and cultural responses and other aspects of Star Wars and its world building in their multiple contexts of production distribution and reception In emphasizing that Star Wars is both a media franchise and a transmedia storyworld Star Wars and the History of Transmedia Storytelling demonstrates the ways in which transmedia storytelling and the industrial logic of media franchising have developed in concert over the past four decades as multinational corporations have become the central means for subsidizing profiting from and selling modes of immersive storyworlds to global audiences By taking this dual approach the book focuses on the interconnected nature of corporate production fan consumption and transmedia world building As such this collection grapples with the historical cultural aesthetic and political economic implications of the relationship between media franchising and transmedia storytelling as they are seen at work in the world's most profitable transmedia franchise

The Atlantic and Its Enemies: A Personal History of the Cold War (Volume 2 of 2) (Large Print 16pt) Norman Stone, 2010 Those who survived the Second World War stared out onto a devastated morally ruined world Much of Europe and Asia had been so ravaged that it was unclear whether any form of normal life could ever be established again coups collapsing empires and civil wars some on a vast scale continued to reshape country after country long after the fighting was meant to have ended Everywhere the Atlantic world the USA Britain and a handful of allies was on the defensive and its enemies on the move For every Atlantic success there seemed to be a dozen Communist or Third World successes as the USSR and its proxies crushed dissent and humiliated the United States on both military and cultural grounds For all the astonishing productivity of the American Japanese and mainland western European economies setting aside the fiasco of Britain's implosion most of the world was either under Communist rule or lost in a violent stagnancy that seemed doomed to permanence Even in the late 1970s with the collapse of Iran the oil shock and the Soviet invasion of Afghanistan the initiative seemed to lie with the Communist forces Then suddenly the Atlantic won economically ideologically militarily with astonishing speed and completeness

The Gladiators vs. Spartacus, Volume 2 Abraham Polonsky,2020-12-21 This publication of Abraham Polonsky s unproduced screenplay for The Gladiators is a tribute to one of Hollywood s premiere post WW II directors and writers whose career was severely impacted by the blacklist His script for The Gladiators survives to remind us that he could and did transform a difficult and complex novel of an ancient slave rebellion into a screenplay worthy of Arthur Koestler s bold fictional vision Through a combination of the ambivalence of its executive producer and star plus bad timing it never went before the cameras This book is published in the hope that The Gladiators will be produced for cinema or television

And the Loser is: A History of Oscar Oversights [2nd Edition] Aubrey Malone,2020-10-06 This is the first book of its kind Aubrey Malone has gone back to the start of the Oscar ceremonies and discovered that mistakes have been made every year in the choice of what has been deemed best in the categories of acting directing producing and the subsidiary awards He has identified all the great stars Garbo Montgomery Clift Peter O Toole Barbara Stanwyck etc who never held Oscars in their hands and also iconic directors like Stanley Kubrick who were never thus honored Why were some people over rewarded by the Academy and why did others fall below the radar The author outlines all of the extraneous factors leading to voting choices and how Oscar pariahs have often been subsequently or even posthumously awarded for the wrong films to make up for omissions in a given year With both wit and wisdom he has written an alternative history of the Oscars that will be required reading for both academics and film buffs alike It tells the story behind the story If there were Oscars for research Aubrey Malone would be right up there with the best of them Film Ireland Catalogue of
