

The Outsiders

by S. E. Hinton

Please answer the following questions on a separate sheet of paper.

Chapter 1

1. Who are the Socs? Who are the Greasers?

Socs - rich, madras, mustangs, East side

Greasers - poor, t-shirts and jeans, West side

2. How is Pony's relationship with Darry different from his relationship with Soda?

Darry is more like a father-figure to Pony. He loves him, but they argue a lot and he is hard on him. Soda and Pony are friends. He really understands Pony and they have a lot in common.

3. Why is the "gang" so important to Johnny?

He relies on them like family, because his father abuses him and his mother ignores him.

4. Do you think Darry loves Pony? Why does he treat Pony the way he does?

Yes, he does love Pony. He is hard on Pony because he doesn't want him to get in trouble because then the boys would be split up. He wants Pony to have a good life.

5. Explain what Pony means when he says, "I lie to myself all the time". Why do you think people lie to themselves?

He tries to convince himself something is truth. For example, he tries to convince himself that he doesn't care that Darry doesn't love him, but he does care whether or not Darry loves him.

Chapter 2

1. Who are Cherry and Marcia?

Two Socy girls Pony and Johnny picked up at the drive-in.

2. Why is it strange that Cherry and Pony get along so well?

Socs and Greasers shouldn't get along, but Cherry and Pony have a lot in common - sunsets, dreamers, school.

3. According to Two-Bit, what is a "fair fight"? Why don't Socs fight fair?

Teaching across Cultures Chinwe H. Ikpeze, 2015-04-27 Teaching across Cultures Building Pedagogical Relationships in Diverse Contexts captures the tensions complexities as well as the transformational potentials of teaching across multiple cultural contexts The book evolved from cumulative self studies that examined one teacher educator's teaching practice the cultural impact on this practice and how she facilitated transformative teaching and learning While every act of teaching occurs across cultures such as institutional culture invisible cultures classroom cultures among others educators who teach as cultural outsiders have to navigate the tensions complexities and contradictory realities of cross cultural teaching The tensions can be reduced or managed through responsive pedagogy relationship building and teaching in the third space These transformational approaches not only help to identify and close the perpetual gaps in teaching and learning but also position effective teaching within a pedagogical common ground that values student voices facilitates pedagogical flexibility and uses diversity as a teaching tool In a world of ubiquitous and interactive learning environments both the physical and virtual spaces play a vital role in teaching and teacher student relationships The book points to the necessity of teacher educators learning through diverse professional networks but more importantly through self study It is only through this introspective examination of one s teaching and students learning as well as taking an ontological attitude to teaching that educators can achieve success in diverse contexts

Suzanne Levi-Sanchez,2016-07-15 Based on extensive long term fieldwork in the borderlands of Afghan and Tajik Badakhshan this book explores the importance of local leaders and local identity groups for the stability of a state s borders and ultimately for the stability of the state itself It shows how the implantation of formal institutional structures at the border a process supported by United Nations and other international bodies can be counterproductive in that it may marginalise local leaders and alienate the local population thereby increasing overall instability The study considers how in this particular borderland where trafficking of illegal drugs weapons and people is rampant corrupt customs and border personnel and imperfect new institutional arrangements contributed to a complex mix of oppression hidden protest and subtle resistance which benefitted illicit traders and hindered much needed humanitarian work The book relates developments in this region to borderlands elsewhere especially new borders in the former Soviet bloc and argues that local leaders and organisations should be given semi autonomy in co ordination with state border forces in order to increase stability and the acceptance of the state The Answer Is in the Room Alan M. Blankstein,2011-06-02 Best selling author Alan Blankstein shares the results of his research with top educational experts and describes a five step process of finding and scaling excellent practices within learning communities Provided by publisher Electing Cromwell Andrew Barclay,2015-10-06 Popular interest in Cromwell has often exceeded the originality of what has been written about him Barclay s study comes out of meticulous research on a huge range of newly discovered primary sources transforming our understanding of the life and career of Oliver Cromwell during the period from his birth in 1599 until 1642 The Psychological Basis of Moral Judgments John Park,2021-07-18 This volume examines the psychological basis of moral judgments and asks what theories of concepts apply to moral concepts By combining philosophical reasoning and empirical insights from the fields of moral psychology cognitive science evolutionary psychology and neuroscience it considers what mental states not only influence but also constitute our moral concepts and judgments On this basis Park proposes a novel pluralistic theory of moral concepts which includes three different cognitive structures and emotions Thus our moral judgments are shown to be a hybrid that express both cognitive and conative states In part through analysis of new empirical data on moral semantic intuitions gathered via cross cultural experimental research Park reveals that the referents of individuals moral judgments and concepts vary across time contexts and groups On this basis he contends for moral relativism where moral judgments cannot be universally true across time and location but only relative to groups This powerfully argued text will be of interest to researchers academics and educators with an interest in cognitive science moral theory philosophy of psychology and moral psychology more broadly Those interested in ethics applied social psychology and moral development will also benefit from the volume
