

Passionate Prisoners

A man in a red and black armored suit is embracing a woman with long, wavy red hair. The man is wearing a black and gold gauntlet on his right arm. The woman is wearing a black and red corset. They are both looking at each other with a romantic expression.

The Passionate Prisoners:

The Passion of Bradley Manning Chase Madar, 2012 In May 2010 an intelligence analyst in the US Army's 10th Mountain Division was arrested on suspicion of leaking nearly half a million classified government documents including the infamous Collateral Murder gunsight video and 260 000 State Department cables After nine months in solitary confinement the suspect now awaits court martial in Fort Leavenworth He is twenty four comes from Crescent Oklahoma and his name is Bradley Manning Who is Private First Class Bradley Manning Why did he allegedly commit the largest security breach in American history and why was it so easy Is Manning a traitor or a whistleblower Is long term isolation an outrage to American values or the new norm Are the leaks revolutionary or a sensational nonevent Which is the greater security threat routinized elite secrecy or flashes of transparency And what impact does new information really have The astonishing leaks attributed to Bradley Manning are viewed from many angles from Tunisia to Guantanamo Bay from Foggy Bottom to Baghdad to small town Oklahoma Around the world the eloquent alleged act of one young man obliges citizens to ask themselves if they have the right to know what their government is doing The Passion of Michel Foucault James Miller, 2000 Based on extensive new research and a bold interpretation of the man and his texts The Passion of Michel Foucault is a startling look at one of this century's most influential philosophers It chronicles every stage of Foucault's personal and professional odyssey from his early interest in dreams to his final preoccupation with sexuality and the nature of personal identity

Handbook on Prisons Yvonne Jewkes, 2012-08-21 This is the most comprehensive and ambitious book on prisons to have been published a key text for anybody studying the subject and an essential work of reference for practitioners working in prisons and other parts of the criminal justice system It is especially timely in view of the many changes and debates about the role of prisons and their future organisation and management as part of the National Offender Management Service A key aim of the book is to explore a wide range of historical and contemporary issues relating to prisons imprisonment and prison management and to chart likely future trends Chapters in the book are written by leading scholars in the field and reflect the range and depth of prison research and scholarship Like the Handbook of Policing and Handbook of Crime Prevention and Community Safety the Handbook on Prisons will be the essential book on the subject The Older Prisoner Diete Humblet, 2021-01-23 This book critically explores the world of older prisoners to provide a more nuanced understanding of imprisonment at old age Through an ethnographical study of male and female older prisoners in two Belgian prison settings one in which older prisoners are integrated and one in which they are segregated it informs debates and seeks to recognise ageist discourse attitudes practices in prison The Older Prisoner seeks to situate the older prisoner from both a penological and gerontological perspective organised around the following broad themes the construction of the older prisoner the physical prison world the social prison world surviving prison and giving meaning The book allows readers to navigate between contrasting perspectives and voices rather than reinforcing traditional narratives and prevailing discourses on the older prisoner In doing so it hopes to open up a broader dialogue on ageing and punishment It also offers insights into the concept of meaning in life as an analytical tool to study prisoners The Passion of Perpetua and Felicity Thomas J. Heffernan, 2011-07-01 Winner of the Modern Language Association Prize for a Scholarly Edition One of the most widely read and studied texts composed in Late Antiquity is the prison diary of Vibia Perpetua a young woman of the elite classes who was martyred in March of the year 202 or 203 C E in Carthage as part of a civic celebration honoring Caesar Geta She was well married and had recently become the mother of a baby son but despite her advantages she refused to recant her faith when she was arrested with other recent converts to Christianity Imprisoned with her was her pregnant slave Felicity Perpetua's steadfastness in her belief led to her martyrdom in the amphitheater A description of the heroic deaths of both women and the autobiography of one of the leaders of the Christian community Saturus is woven into Perpetua's diary by an anonymous editor who tells us that as they died Perpetua Felicity and the other condemned Christians bid farewell with a kiss of peace This unique and precious text survives in one Greek and in nine Latin manuscript versions Thomas Heffernan's new study contains much that has never been done before including a prosopography of all the individuals mentioned in the Passion a new English translation and the first detailed historical commentary in English on the entire narrative of the Passion It also includes a newly edited version of the Latin text based on all the extant manuscripts and rarer still the Greek text He concludes the book with a complete codicological description of all of the known manuscripts and thorough scholarly indices of the text itself Perpetua's prison diary is a revered text of early Christianity and Heffernan's new translation and commentary brings unprecedented scholarly resources to the much loved Passion Place is The Passion Dr Bill Williamson, 2012-08-08 Israel relies for its survival on its lucrative arms trade and American military support Meanwhile the Palestinians suffer poverty and destitution as an occupied nation Indeed without vast international financial support the Palestinians would face starvation Any solution is impossible while Israel pursues an aggressive program of settlement expansion and ethnic cleansing The author draws extensively on Jewish sources to prove Israel is on the wrong track He looks beyond the moribund two state solution which he likens to Apartheid to show there is a better future achievable for both peoples one that is secular democratic bi national culturally vibrant and economically successful
