Fragmented Memories and Screening Nostalgia for the Cultural Revolution Jing Meng, 2020-08-19 Fragmented Memories and Screening Nostalgia for the Cultural Revolution argues that films and TV dramas about the Cultural Revolution made after China s accession to the WTO in 2001 tend to represent personal memories in a markedly sentimental nostalgic and fragmented manner This new trend is a significant departure from earlier films about the subject which are generally interpreted as national allegories not private expressions of grief regret or other personal feelings With China entering a postsocialist era the ideological conflation of socialism and global capitalism has generated enough cultural ambiguity to allow a space for the expression of personalized reminiscences of the past By presenting these personal memories in effect alternative narratives to official history on screen individuals now seem to have some agency in narrating and constructing history At the same time such autonomy can be easily undermined since the promotion of the sentiment of nostalgia is often subjected to commodification Sentimental treatments of the past may simply be a marketing strategy Underplaying political issues is also a safer way for films and TV dramas to secure public release in mainland China Meng concludes that the new mode of representing the past is shaped by the current sociopolitical conditions these personal memories and micro narratives can be understood as the defining ways of remembering in China s

postsocialist era Fragmented Memories and Screening Nostalgia for the Cultural Revolution takes a comprehensive look at contemporary screen depictions of the Cultural Revolution The book convincingly ties close readings of the works analysed with broader social and cultural phenomena that already are hot topics of study and debate offering something original while also being closely engaged with existing scholarship Jason McGrath University of Minnesota Breaking through the tired dichotomy between personal and collective narratives individual memory and grand history this refreshing book sheds much light on film memories of the Cultural Revolution in the post socialist millennium In a limpid and engaging style Jing Meng probes memory s nostalgia and imbrication with the collective destiny and critiques the personal focus aligned with neoliberal economy and commodification Ban Wang Stanford University Hawthorn Bill Vaughn,2015-01-01 An engaging introduction to the ancient hawthorn tree and its varied roles in human history One of humankind s oldest companions the hawthorn tree is bound up in the memories of every recorded age and the plot lines of cultures across the Northern Hemisphere In Hawthorn Bill Vaughn examines the little recognized political cultural and natural history of this ancient spiky plant Used for thousands of years in the impenetrable living fences that defined the landscapes of Europe the hawthorn eventually helped feed the class antagonism that led to widespread social upheaval In the American Midwest hawthorn inspired hedges on the prairies made nineteenth century farming economically rewarding for the first time Later in Normandy mazelike hedgerows bristling with these thorns nearly cost the Allies World War II Vaughn shines light on the full scope of the tree s influence over human events He also explores medicinal value of the hawthorn the use of its fruit in the world s first wine and the symbolic role its spikes and flowers played in pagan beliefs and Christian iconography As entertaining as it is illuminating this book is the first full appreciation of the hawthorn s abundant connections with humanity

Memory, Fluid Identity, and the Politics of Remembering Li Li,2016-06-21 The Chinese Cultural Revolution is the single most important internal social event in contemporary Chinese history The plethora of history literary and artistic representations inspired by this event are critical to our understanding of the diversified often contested interpretations of contemporary China Li Li s critical examination of autobiographic filmic and fictional presentations in Memory Fluid Identity and the Politics of Remembering The Representations of the Chinese Cultural Revolution in English speaking Countries demonstrates that memory works not only reflect memories of those who lived through that period but memories about their past and more importantly about their identity remapping and artistic negotiation in a cross cultural environment authors take into account a vast array of studies on all aspects of the Hittite language In the five decades since the publication of the second edition of Johannes Friedrich's Hethitisches Elementarbuch 1960 our knowledge of Hittite grammar has become more detailed and nuanced especially because of the number of new texts available and the growing body of secondary literature This first volume in the LANE series fills a serious gap and offers a comprehensive reference for decades to come The second volume is a tutorial that consists of a series of graded lessons with illustrative sentences for the student to translate The tutorial is keyed to the reference grammar and provides extensive notes The printed grammar volume is accompanied by a CD ROM that contains the entire text of the grammar and tutorial in searchable cross referenced and hyperlinked form Kaapse bibliotekaris ,2012 Issues for Nov 1957 include section Accessions Aanwinste Sept 1957
