Marie-Christine Bellosta, Hans Hartje, Negotiating the New in the French Novel Teresa Bridgeman, 2005-08-16 In Negotiating the New in the French Novel Teresa Bridgeman applies insights from pragmatic theory to the French novel in order to examine its discourse conventions Focussing on texts by some of the greatest and most innovative French novelists Diderot Balzac Flaubert Zola Celine Sarraute and Perec Bridgeman analyses how these authors established their own conventions challenged reader expectations and drew conventions from other literary and non literary forms Negotiating the New in the French Novel shows the development of changing perceptions of genre author and reader This book will make fascinating reading for students of French literature particularly of the nineteenth century novel students of Stylistics and of Narratology W ou Le souvenir d'enfance, de Perec Tiphaine Samoyault, 1997-01-01 T00:00:00+01:00 Cet ouvrage est

Jones, 2007 The Second World War was a common experience of cultural and historical rupture for many European countries but studies of this period and its after images often remain locked in national frameworks Jones comparative study of national memory cultures argues for a more nuanced view of responses to shared issues of remembrance Focusing on the 1960s and 1970s two decades of great change and debate in French and German discourses of memory it investigates literary representations of the Second World War and in particular the Holocaust from France and both Germanies The study encompasses thirteen works representing a variety of genres and divergent perspectives and authors include Jorge Semprun Peter Weiss Georges Perec and Bernhard Vesper Addressing the underlying theme of travel

as a means of exploring the past it contrasts the journeys made by deportees and post war visitors to the camps with the use of the literary device

Consuming Autobiographies Claire Boyle, 2017-12-02 Since 1975 French literary writing has been marked by an autobiographical turn which has seen authors increasingly often tap into the vein of what the French term écriture de soi. This coincides paradoxically with the death of autobiography as these authors self consciously distance themselves and their writings from conventional autobiography founding a nouvelle autobiographie where the very possibility of autobiographical expression is questioned. In the first book length study in English to address this phenomenon Claire Boyle sheds a new light on this hostility toward autobiography through a series of ground breaking studies of estrangement in autobiographical works by major post war authors Nathalie Sarraute, Georges Perec, Jean Genet and Helene Cixous. She identifies autobiography as a site of conflict between writer and reader as authors struggle to assert the unknowableness of their identity in the face of a readership resolutely desiring privileged knowledge. Autobiography emerges as a deeply troubling genre for authors with the reader as an antagonistic consumer of the autobiographical self.

Georges Perec Manet van Montfrans, 1999 Jongleur virtuose de mots et de formes observateur attentif de son époque conteur intarissable Georges Perec 1936-1982 est un écrivain dont la renommée ne cesse de croître auprès d'un public très diversifié en France et à l'étranger. La discrétion et l'humour de Perec ont pu masquer en un premier temps le véritable enjeu de son œuvre. Depuis le milieu des années quatre-vingt on voit cependant se développer une sensibilité accrue à la place que l'Histoire tient dans l'œuvre de cet auteur. Né en 1936 à Paris dans une famille d'immigrants d'origine juive polonaise, cet ouvrage retrace d'une part l'élaboration progressive de la poétique perécquienne qui s'est nourrie des expérimentations littéraires et des échanges intellectuels au sein de l'Oulipo. D'autre part, il confronte ce projet d'écriture à l'analyse de trois textes narratifs : Un homme qui dort, W ou le souvenir d'enfance et Un cabinet d'amateur. Écrire est, selon Perec, un jeu qui se joue à deux entre l'écrivain et le lecteur. Une fois qu'il s'est laissé séduire par les énigmes de ces textes, le lecteur doit accepter de suivre Perec à tâtons dans les méandres de son labyrinthe. Ce n'est que lorsqu'il consent à s'associer patiemment au mouvement de l'auteur qu'il comprendra ce autour de quoi tournent ces textes et vers quoi, sans cesse, ils retournent.

Conventional and Original Metaphors in French Autobiography Madalina Akli, 2009 This book studies three autobiographies each of which is at least partially devoid of chronological structure: Sartre's The Words, Perec's W or The Memory of Childhood and Sarraute's Childhood. Calendar based order traditionally associated with autobiography fails to provide the coherence the readers expect. Hence readers must create a sense of coherence at another level by using their conceptual resources. Conventional and Original Metaphors in French Autobiography reveals that in these literary texts coherence is maintained based on the exploitation of conventional metaphors taken from everyday language which the autobiographers transform in a creative yet familiar manner. These common metaphors offer guidance to readers and establish coherence between the shared life experiences of reader and autobiographer. In the course of reading the autobiographers and the readers' life experiences overlap through familiar metaphors which serve as organizational devices in writing and as guiding principles in reading

Georges Perec Paul Schwartz,1988      Artful Deceptions Catherine Emerson,Maria C. Scott,2006 Selected papers from a conference organized at the National University of Ireland Galway in April 2004      The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth-Century French Literature Alison James,2020-09-03 The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth Century French Literature identifies a documentary impulse in French literature that emerges at the end of the nineteenth century and culminates in a proliferation of factual writings in the twenty first Focusing on the period bookended by these two moments it highlights the enduring concern with factual reference in texts that engage either with current events or the historical archive Specifically it considers a set of ideas and practices centered on the conceptualization and use of documents In doing so it contests the widespread narrative that twentieth century French literature abandons the realist enterprise and argues that writers instead renegotiate the realist legacy outside or at the margins of the fictional space of the novel Analyzing works by authors including Gide Breton Aragon Yourcenar Duras and Modiano the book defines a specific documentary mode of literary representation that records assembles and investigates material traces of reality The document is a textual visual or material piece of evidence repurposed through its visual insertion textual transcription or description within a literary work It is a fact but it also becomes a figure standing for literature s confrontation with the real The documentary imagination involves a fantasy of direct access to a reality that speaks for itself At the same time it gives rise to concrete textual practices that open up new directions for literature by interrogating the construction and interpretation of facts

Terror and the Arts M. Hyvärinen, L. Muszynski, 2008-08-04 This book advances the argument that the arts from film and literature to painting and comics offer qualitatively different readings of terror and trauma that endeavor to resist the exploitation and perpetuation of violence

Anamnesia Peter Collier, Anna Magdalena Elsner, Olga Smith, 2009 Memory has always been crucial to French literature and culture as a means of mediating the relationship between perception and knowledge of the individual coming to terms with his identity in time Relatively recently memory has also emerged as the key force in the creation of a collective consciousness in the wider perspective of French cultural history This collection of essays selected from the proceedings of a seminar on Memory given by Dr Emma Wilson at the University of Cambridge offers a fresh evaluation of memory as both a cultural and an individual phenomenon in modern and contemporary French culture including literature cinema and the visual arts Anamnesia the book's title develops the Aristotelian concept of anamnesis recollection as a dynamic and creative process which includes forgetting as much as remembering concealment as much as imagination Memory in this extremely diverse range of essays is therefore far from being presented as a straightforward process of recalling the past but emerges as the site of research and renegotiation of contradictions and even aporia
