Head investigate a behind the scenes scandal in this delightful Golden Age of Hollywood mystery 1939 Los Angeles Lillian Frost is shocked when her friend glamorous costume designer Edith Head hands her the script to a new film that s about to start shooting Streetlight Story is based on a true crime the California Republic bank robbery of 1936 Lillian s beau LAPD detective Gene Morrow was one of the officers on the case his partner Teddy was tragically shot dead It seems the scriptwriter has put Gene at the centre of a scandal twisting fact with fiction or has he With Gene reluctant to talk about the case the movie quickly becoming the hottest ticket in town a suspicious death on the Paramount studio lot and the police reopening the investigation into Teddy s death Lillian is determined to find answers Can Lillian and Edith uncover the truth of what happened that fateful day and clear Gene s name I Don't Need an Acting Class Milton Justice, 2021-11-01 I Don t Need an Acting Class explores critical aspects of the technique of acting utilizing conversations via email with countless actors Some are aspiring students others are seasoned professionals The conversations document the challenges these diverse actors face as they digest what they have learned in a class or rehearsal while exploring in practical terms how to use their growing technique Milton Justice first began receiving emails from actors in 2008 In this book Justice brings together email conversations between teacher and student along with observations and commentary about acting technique and craft Not all of the emails in the book are overly thought out or complete Quite the contrary they are meant to capture the feeling of a living breathing process as it happens When an actor sends a teacher or director an email with a problem be it a simple comment or confusion it is evidence of a creative artist exploring new ground Many years ago Stella Adler sent Justice a letter in response to a panicked note he had written to her while lost in the weeds during rehearsals for a new play She set a tone for him as she succinctly defined the problem and reminded him of its elegant solution He was overwhelmed by the care she had given him That letter still hangs over his desk perfectly demonstrating the power of a written exchange between a teacher and a student

The Scandal of Adaptation Thomas Leitch, 2023-04-21 The essays in this volume seek to expose the scandals of adaptation Some of them focus on specific adaptations that have been considered scandalous because they portray characters acting in ways that give scandal because they are thought to betray the values enshrined in the texts they adapt because their composition or reception raises scandalous possibilities those adapted texts had repressed or because they challenge their audiences in ways those texts had never thought to do Others consider more general questions arising from the proposition that all adaptation is a scandalous practice that confronts audiences with provocative questions about bowdlerizing ethics censorship contagion screenwriting and history The collection offers a challenge to the continued marginalization of adaptations and adaptation studies and an invitation to change their position by embracing rather than downplaying their ability to scandalize the institutions they affront

Twentieth-Century British and American Theatre Christopher Innes,Katherine Carlstrom,Scott Fraser,2019-05-23 First published in 1999 this volume aims to develop the field of theatre studies by promoting the study of performative elements and thus fostering their consideration in the critical interpretation of dramatic literature The authors additionally suggest ways of approaching and evaluating the work of individual performers as well as of directors designers and producers It is an archival guide which covers manuscript and ephemera rather than published texts and attempts to indicate the potential value of the documentary material listed. This unique reference guide provides descriptions and evaluations of archive manuscript materials and ephemera relating to twentieth century British and American theatre. Over 100 archives across Europe, North America and Britain were examined in the compilation of this volume. The documents include unpublished playscripts, state and costume designs, directors' books, prompt books, lighting plots, stage photos, correspondence, theatre programmes. One hundred and seventy-five entries are arranged alphabetically and cover playwrights, directors, designers and actors. By its nature, theatre is a collaborative enterprise, a facet which is recognised in the comprehensive cross-referencing of entries. The last twenty years has seen a shift in drama studies from text-based criticism to analysis of performance. The materials covered in this book have therefore become essential to future research in the field. The Chicago Jewish Forum, 1949 Carl Hubbell Lowell L.

With an emphasis on his pitching career, this biography covers both his personal life and his development as a player. Modern American Drama: Playwriting in the 1930s Anne Fletcher, 2019-11-14 The Decades of Modern American Drama series provides a comprehensive survey and study of the theatre produced in each decade from the 1930s to 2009 in eight volumes. Each volume equips readers with a detailed understanding of the context from which work emerged; an introduction considers life in the decade with a focus on domestic life and conditions, social changes, culture, media, technology, industry and political events, while a chapter on the theatre of the decade offers a wide-ranging and thorough survey of theatres, companies, dramatists, new movements and developments in response to the economic and political conditions of the day. The work of the four most prominent playwrights from the decade receives in-depth analysis and re-evaluation by a team of experts, together with commentary on their subsequent work and legacy. A final section brings together original documents such as interviews with the playwrights and with directors, drafts of play scenes and other previously unpublished material. The major playwrights and their works to receive in-depth coverage in this volume include Clifford Odets' Waiting for Lefty 1935, Awake and Sing 1935 and Golden Boy 1937; Lillian Hellman's The Children's Hour 1934, The Little Foxes 1939 and Days to Come 1936; Langston Hughes' Mulatto 1935, Mule Bone 1930 with Zora Neale Hurston and Little Ham 1936; Gertrude Stein's Doctor Faustus Lights the Lights 1938, Four Saints in Three Acts written in 1927, published in 1932 and Listen to Me 1936. The Politics of Culture in the Shadow of Capital Lisa Lowe, David Lloyd, 1997-11-17 Coming from a broad cross-section of academic disciplines and theoretical positions, this collection of essays questions and reworks Marxist critiques of capitalism that center on the West and which posit a uniform model of development. More specifically, Acts of Authority/Acts of Resistance Nandi Bhatia, 2010-02-01 Explores the relationship between nationalism, colonialism and the politics of theater in colonial and postcolonial India.
