QUESTION	ANSWER	QUESTION	ANSWER
1. What is the main purpose of the document?	The document is a report on the results of a survey conducted among students at the University of California, Berkeley, regarding their attitudes towards the Vietnam War.	2. How many students participated in the survey?	One hundred students participated in the survey.
3. What are the main findings of the survey?	The survey found that a majority of students (65%) are opposed to the Vietnam War. The reasons for opposition include the high cost of the war, the loss of American lives, and the fact that the war is not necessary for the security of the United States.	4. What are the recommendations of the survey?	The survey recommends that the government should withdraw its troops from Vietnam and seek a peaceful resolution to the conflict.
5. What is the conclusion of the survey?	The survey concludes that the American people, particularly the young generation, are becoming increasingly aware of the issues surrounding the Vietnam War and are demanding a change in policy.	6. What is the significance of the survey?	The survey is significant because it provides a snapshot of student opinion at a major university during a critical period in American history.

concerns that policy recommendations should also include a re-evaluation of government systems. The authors argue that a combination of all the factors outlined (regulations, institutional systems, management and leadership styles, people and capacity, and the role of government) are necessary to ensure that the health care system is able to deliver quality and efficient care, and that the system is able to respond to the needs of the population.
