Literary Biographies in The Lives of Remarkable People Series in Russia, Ludmilla A. Trigos, Carol Ueland, 2022-03-14 The legendary Russian biography series The Lives of Remarkable People has played a significant role in Russian culture from its inception in 1890 until today The longest running biography series in world literature it spans three centuries and widely divergent political and cultural epochs Imperial Soviet and Post Soviet Russia The authors argue that the treatment of biographical figures in the series is a case study for continuities and changes in Russian national identity over time Biography in Russia and elsewhere remains a most influential literary genre and the distinctive approach and branding of the series has made it the economic engine of its publisher Molodaia gvardiia The centrality of biographies of major literary figures in the series reflects their heightened importance in Russian culture The contributors examine the ways that biographies of Russia's foremost writers shaped the literary canon while mirroring the political and social realities of both the subjects and their biographers times Starting with Alexander Pushkin and ending with Joseph Brodsky the authors analyze the interplay of research and imagination in biographical narrative the changing perceptions of what constitutes literary greatness and the subversive possibilities of biography during eras of political censorship

The Voices of Suspense and Their Translation in Thrillers Susanne M. Cadera, Anita Pavic Pintaric, 2014-03-05 The volume aims to be a reference work for all researchers interested in the study of fictional dialogue and its translation in suspense novels and films as well as in related genres The volume also aims to determine the interplay between the creation of suspense and fictional dialogue The particular interest in dialogue comes from the host of roles it plays in fiction It helps create suspense and arouses a whole range of feelings in the reader or the audience related to the development of the plot Fictional dialogue is the discursive method of evoking orality conferring authenticity and credibility on a plot and giving fictional characters a voice As a narrative strategy dialogue is an important resource that enables the writer to shape the character's subjectivity In thrillers the character's voice is part of the process of creating suspense an element of uncertainty anxiety and excitement which is not exclusive to this genre To clearly differentiate suspense from the tension created by other types of fiction this volume aims to study the relationship between the characters' voices and the building of suspense and to describe the translation difficulties arising from this particular interdependence

Sign Crossroads in Global Perspective Susan Petrilli, 2017-09-08 Language is the species specific human version of the animal system of communication In contrast to non human animals language enables humans to invent a plurality of possible worlds reflect upon signs be responsible for our actions gain conscious awareness of our inevitable mutual involvement in the network of life on this planet and be responsibly involved in the destiny of the planet The author looks at semiotics the study of signs symbols and communication as developing sequentially rather than successively more synchronically than diachronically She discusses the contemporary phenomenon that people in today s society have witnessed and participated in as part of the development of semiotics Although there is a long history preceding semiotics in a sense the field is as a phenomenon more of our time than of any time past Its leading figures whom Petrilli examines belong to the twentieth and twenty first century Semiotics is associated with a capacity for listening This capacity is also the condition for reconnecting to and recovering the ancient vocation of semiotics as that branch of medical science relating to the interpretation of signs or symptoms The pragmatic aspect of global semiotics studies the impact of language or signs on those who use them and looks for consequences in actual practice In this respect Petrilli theorizes that the task for semiotics in the era of globalization is nothing less than to take responsibility for life in its totality Official Gazette of the United States Patent and Trademark Office ,2004

Empirical Translation Studies Gert De Sutter,Marie-Aude Lefer,Isabelle Delaere,2017-05-08 The present volume is devoted to the study of language use in translated texts as a function of various linguistic contextual and cognitive factors It contributes to the recent trend in empirical translation studies towards more methodological sophistication including mixed methodology designs and multivariate statistical analyses ultimately leading to a more accurate understanding of language use in translations

Sports Arbitration: A Coach for Other Players - ASA Special Series No. 41 Elliott Geisinger ,Elena Trbaldo - de Mestral,2015-02-01 Sports Arbitration A Coach for Other Players is not about sports arbitration The reader may thus ask Well what is it about Arbitration can take inspiration from other human activities for instance sports Does it follow that arbitration in general can take inspiration from sports arbitration Can sports arbitration serve as an example be it for better or worse And if so what are the limits of this These questions are highly topical in today s world of arbitration Faced with the increased duration and costs of arbitral proceedings and with the perception that litigators instead of business people have taken over the process more and more users are calling for a return to fast inexpensive forms of dispute resolution that are conducted by persons of the trade This has resulted in a series of initiatives to introduce trade specific forms of dispute resolution based on fast track arbitration proceedings in a wide range of business sectors
