Martin Luther King, Jr. once said, "The beauty of nonviolence is that it seeks to break the chain reaction of evil." What did he mean by this? Do you agree with King's strategy of nonviolent protest? Or is violent social protest sometimes justified? Support your opinion with evidence from the book.

Instructor's Manual and Test Bank to Accompany Groundwork for College Reading Bill Broderick,2000 John U. Monro Toni-Lee Capossela,2012-12-17 In 1967 John U Monro dean of the college at Harvard left his twenty year administrative career at that prestigious university for a teaching position at Miles College an unaccredited historically black college on the outskirts of Birmingham Alabama This unconventional move was a natural continuation of Monro s life long commitment to equal opportunity in education A champion of the underprivileged Monro embodied both the virtues of the Greatest Generation and the idealism of the civil rights era His teaching career spanned more than four decades and as biographer Toni Lee Capossela demonstrates his influence reached well beyond his lifetime In addition to being a talented administrator Monro was a World War II veteran a crusading journalist a civil rights proponent and a spokesman for the fledgling Peace Corps His dedication to social justice outlasted the fervor of the 1960s and fueled bold initiatives in higher education While at Harvard he developed a financial aid formula that became the national template for needs based scholarships and earned him the title The Father of Modern Financial Aid During his decade at Miles College he spearheaded a satellite freshman program in the economically depressed Greene County then went on to help design a literacy program a senior research requirement and a writing across the curriculum program at Tougaloo College When hearing and memory loss drove him from the classroom he moved his base of operations to Tougaloo s Writing Center working with students in a collaborative relationship that suited his personality and teaching style Only in 1996 after struggling with the symptoms of

Alzheimer s for several years did he retire with great reluctance John U Monro Uncommon Educator is a tribute to this passionate teacher and an affirmation of how one person can inspire many to initiate positive and lasting change
