African Data Privacy Laws Alex B. Makulilo,2016-11-30 This volume presents analyses of data protection systems and of 26 jurisdictions with data protection legislation in Africa as well as additional selected countries without comprehensive data protection laws In addition it covers all sub regional and regional data privacy policies in Africa Apart from analysing data protection law the book focuses on the socio economic contexts political settings and legal culture in which such laws developed and operate It bases its analyses on the African legal culture and comparative international data privacy law In Africa protection of personal data the central preoccupation of data privacy laws is on the policy agenda The recently adopted African Union Cyber Security and Data Protection Convention 2014 which is the first and currently the only single treaty across the globe to address data protection outside Europe serves as an illustration of such interest In addition there are data protection frameworks at sub regional levels for West Africa East Africa and Southern Africa Similarly laws on protection of personal data are increasingly being adopted at national plane Yet despite these data privacy law reforms there is very little literature about data privacy law in Africa and its recent developments This book fills that gap

Reconceiving Religious Conflict Wendy Mayer, Chris L. de Wet, 2018-01-17 Reconceiving Religious Conflict deconstructs instances of religious conflict within the formative centuries of Christianity the first six centuries CE It explores the theoretical foundations of religious conflict the dynamics of religious conflict within the context of persecution and martyrdom the social and moral intersections that undergird the phenomenon of religious conflict and the relationship between religious conflict and religious identity It is unique in that it does not solely focus on religious violence as it is physically manifested but on religious conflict and tolerance looking too at dynamics of religious discourse and practice that often precede and accompany overt religious violence

Epistemic Justice and the Postcolonial University Amrita Pande, Ruchi Chaturvedi, Shari Daya, Sepideh Azari, Koni Benson, Hal Cooper, Athambile Masola, Kerusha Govender, Lungisile Ntsebeza, Shose Kessi, Jameelah Omar, Nomusa Makhubu, Kealeboga Ramaru, Ari Sitas, Rike Sitas, 2023-08 This book addresses urgent current debates on decolonisation by offering reimagined teaching and learning interventions for obtaining greater epistemic justice in the contemporary postcolonial university At a time when debates on decolonisation have gained urgency in academic civic and public spaces this interdisciplinary collection by authors based at the University of Cape Town South Africa serves as a valuable archive documenting and reflecting on a turbulent period in South African higher education It is an important resource for academics looking to grasp debates on decoloniality both in South Africa and in university and teaching spaces further afield Calling for concerted and collaborative work towards greater epistemic justice across diverse disciplines the book puts forward a new vision of the postcolonial university as one that enables excellent teaching and learning undertaken in a spirit of critical consciousness and reciprocity

Resource Security and Governance Xinting Jia, Roman Tomasic, 2017-11-28 China's phenomenal economic growth in the past 30 years has witnessed the rise of its global natural resources companies At the same time the emerging of a middle class in China and their desire to improve living standards including better dwelling conditions better health and nutrition has driven strong demand in mineral resources energy and quality food The so called socialist market economy in China has seen this growing demand being met partially by companies with national significance. In the resources sector these companies are represented by companies listed in stock exchanges in China as well as globally such as in New York and London at the same time most of these companies are also controlled by the Chinese government. China's resources companies have expanded overseas in search of new acquisition targets whilst seeking to extend their global reach with a focus on resource rich countries. The expansion of these companies internationally and the unique ownership structure of these companies has posed challenges for regulators, trading partners of these companies, investors and other interested parties seeking to understand how these companies are governed and the implications of government ownership for resource security globally.

Resource Security and Governance: The Globalisation of China's Natural Resources Companies contains case studies of the global expansion efforts of Chinese global natural resources companies; it reviews the governance structures of these companies and analyses how these have affected the inter-relationship between these companies and their trading partners, governments, regulators in targeted countries and investors globally. In addition, this book examines how the unique structure of these companies may affect resource security globally and touches on other related matters such as climate change and air and water security in China.

Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa
Dallen J. Timothy, 2023-03-13. Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa examines the multiple and diverse manifestations of cultural heritage-based tourism in Africa from a regional social science and sustainability perspective. This book delivers a comprehensive treatise on the interdependent concepts of cultural heritage and tourism. Heritage is one of the most pervasive tourism assets worldwide and lies at the foundations of tourism in many localities including Africa. However, despite its salience, there has not been a systematic examination of Africa's heritage resources, markets, policies, practices, successes and challenges in a tourism framework despite the continent's immense heritage value. This book reviews the different types of heritages that pervade the cultural environment of Africa and comprises its vast heritagescapes. It also examines the increasing potential for the growth of heritage tourism throughout the entire continent. The contributions in this volume delve into current thinking about space and place and their effects on heritage mobilities.

globalization colonialism and indigeneity conflict identity and nation building connections with other regions through migration and the slave trade and a greater emphasis on the ordinary heritage of Africa which has long been ignored by tourism scholars and industry representatives The chapters herein are authored by Africa specialists most being from Africa offering a truly African perspective The chapters are conceptually rigorous and empirically rich with examples from all regions of the African continent This unparalleled interdisciplinary glimpse at cultural heritage and tourism in Africa delivers strong value and is a vital resource for all students and researchers of tourism cultural studies heritage studies geography anthropology sociology history and global studies
