Workforce Development Roger Harris, Tom Short, 2013-11-19 This book captures the essence of current workforce development perspectives and draws on extensive global research to uncover a range of issues confronting organisations Taking primarily an Australian outlook after the global financial crisis and tracing the progress of a national industry sector each chapter delves into a major area of interest for leaders Overall the authors make the case that workforce development is an amalgam of activities influenced by context politics and economic development As the world becomes increasingly connected and mobile workforce development is proving to be a major activity for organisations because it impacts their longer term survival and growth To stay ahead successful organisations focus on attracting building engaging and retaining talented people However in a financially turbulent era where strategy changes quickly workforce development must not only plan and build the capabilities of people at work but also contribute to making employment more socially sustainable for a better world This book provides a thought provoking collection of scholarly work for business leaders human resource practitioners and academics working in adult education business psychology and social science disciplines At the same time it adopts an accessible style for students and others who want to know more about the development of people at work

Workforce Development Tom Short, Roger Harris, 2014-07-02 This book is the second in a series of two volumes that reviews a broad range of strategies and practices undertaken as workplace development activities in a post global financial crisis period when organisational volatility and survival were foremost in the minds of leaders Drawing mainly from a wide range of major research projects conducted Australia and with some contributions from international authors this second book is a compilation of contemporary themes and applications that were developed from individual research projects During the global financial crisis the Australian economy out performed many other developed countries but it was not immune from international pressures such as global competition market fluctuations and an increasingly mobile workforce These issues are reflected in many of the chapters and the combined work will inform readers about the major workforce development challenges facing public and private sector organisations The book blends relevant literature with rich empirical evidence gathered from large and small organisations and includes application tools developed by researchers who are experts in their field This book will be of scholarly interest to a broad audience of academics industry leaders human resource practitioners and students in adult education business psychology and social science disciplines Moreover the book will be of interest to education and training professionals management consultants and more generally people who follow the evolution of work and its impact on contemporary society

The Evolving Curriculum in Interpreter and Translator Education David B. Sawyer, Frank Austermühl, Vanessa Enríquez Raído, 2019-06-15 The Evolving Curriculum in Interpreter and Translator Education Stakeholder perspectives and voices examines forces driving curriculum design implementation and reform in academic programs that prepare interpreters and translators for employment in the public and private sectors The evolution of the translating and interpreting professions and changes in teaching practices in higher education have led to fundamental shifts in how translating and interpreting knowledge skills and abilities are acquired in academic settings Changing conceptualizations of curricula processes of innovation and reform technology refinement of teaching methodologies specific to translating and interpreting and the emergence of collaborative institutional networks are examples of developments shaping curricula Written by noted stakeholders from both employer organizations and academic programs in many regions of the world the timely and useful contributions in this comprehensive international volume describe the impact of such forces on the conceptual foundations and frameworks of interpreter and translator education

ECKM2014-Proceedings of the 15th European conference on Knowledge Management Carla Vivas, 2014-10-01 The world economy in which we are living poses challenges that lead to a realization that more of the same will be difficult to sustain This provides an illustration that in order to create new or modified knowledge practices strengthen customer relationships and thus positively influence customer satisfaction organizations must be flexible in configuring combining knowledge and knowledge structures in a way that is appropriate for delivering value to the customer It must simultaneously develop effective strategies for updating the knowledge of its staff members necessary for underpinning the creation and delivery of appropriate knowledge services Thus unlearning forgetting becomes a critical means for organizational success The ECKM community of scholars has already initiated dialogue that links its particular strengths to innovation issues This conference aims to further that dialogue by attracting leading edge work that leverages the ECKM community's in depth understanding of learning and unlearning to better understand knowledge management Our aim is to stimulate breakthrough research streams linking learning unlearning and knowledge management How can organizations tailor use and extend techniques and tools from knowledge management for improving their business practices and processes Building upon existing work on knowledge management KM and organizational learning the conference will promote interdisciplinary approaches from computer science and information systems business management and organization science as well as cognitive science Emphasis will be put on systematic learning from experience KM tools and KM success factors A special interest belongs to knowledge management initiatives which are lightweight i e do not place considerable additional burden on users and KM experts allow an incremental adoption i e do not require large up front investment before any return of investment is at least visible and are flexible regarding frequent changes in experts and topics Continuing the success of the ECKM conference series since 2000 the 2015 conference will provide an international communication forum bringing together academia and industry for discussing the progress made and addressing the challenges faced by continuous learning in knowledge intensive organizations

Enemy of the People Adriaan Basson, Pieter du Toit, 2017-11-07 Enemy of the People is the first definitive account of Zuma's catastrophic misrule offering eyewitness descriptions and cogent analysis of how South Africa was brought to its knees and how a people fought back When Jacob Zuma took over the leadership of the ANC one muggy Polokwane evening in December 2007 he inherited a country where GDP was growing by more than 6% per annum a party enjoying the support of two thirds of the electorate and a unified tripartite alliance Today South Africa is caught in the grip of a patronage network the economy is floundering and the ANC is staring down the barrel of a defeat at the 2019 general elections How did we get here Zuma first brought to heel his party Africa's oldest and most revered liberation movement subduing and isolating dissidents associated with his predecessor Thabo Mbeki Then saw the emergence of the tenderpreneur and those attempting to capture the state as well as a network of family friends and business associates that has become so deeply embedded that it has in effect replaced many parts of government. Zuma opened up the state to industrial scale levels of corruption causing irreparable damage to state enterprises, institutions of democracy and the ANC itself. But it hasn't all gone Zuma's way. Former allies have peeled away. A new era of activism has arisen and outspoken civil servants have stepped forward to join a cross section of civil society and a robust media. As a divided ANC squares off for the elective conference in December where there is everything to gain or to lose, award winning journalists Adriaan Basson and Pieter du Toit offer a brilliant and up to date account of the Zuma era.
