Islamophobia and Psychiatry H. Steven Moffic,John Peteet,Ahmed Zakaria Hankir,Rania Awaad,2018-12-17 The book begins by covering the general and clinical challenges that are unique to Muslims drawing from an internationally ethnically and intergenerationally diverse pool of experts The text covers not only how psychiatrists and other clinicians can intervene successfully with patients but how we as clinicians can have a role in addressing other societally connected mental health challenges arising from Islamophobia The text addresses three related but distinct areas of interest Islamophobia as a destructive force Islam as a religion that is threatened by stigma and misinformation and the novel intersection of these forces with the field of psychiatry Islamophobia and Psychiatry is a vital resource for all clinicians and clinicians in training who may encounter patients struggling with these issues including adult and child psychiatrists psychologists primary care physicians counselors social workers and others

African Data Privacy Laws Alex B. Makulilo,2016-11-30 This volume presents analyses of data protection systems and of 26 jurisdictions with data protection legislation in Africa as well as additional selected countries without comprehensive data protection laws In addition it covers all sub regional and regional data privacy policies in Africa Apart from analysing data protection law the book focuses on the socio economic contexts political settings and legal culture in which such laws developed and operate It bases its analyses on the African legal culture and comparative international data privacy law In Africa protection of personal data the central preoccupation of data privacy laws is on the policy agenda The recently adopted African Union Cyber Security and Data Protection Convention 2014 which is the first and currently the only single treaty across the globe to address data protection outside Europe serves as an illustration of such interest In addition there are data protection frameworks at sub regional levels for West Africa East Africa and Southern Africa Similarly laws on protection of personal data are increasingly being adopted at national plane Yet despite these data privacy law reforms there is very little literature about data privacy law in Africa and its recent developments This book fills that gap
