Constructions of Water Quality in South Africa Suvania Naidoo, 2022-05-04 This book details how the water quality of the Blesbokspruit River in Gauteng South Africa was socially constructed by stakeholders and key individuals in the context of acid mine drainage AMD and its treatment Social constructionism is used as the framing for this research to explain how water is intrinsically social Findings presented here show that stakeholders are aware that the changes in the physicality of the Blesbokspruit resulted from human interventions and varied uses of the water over the years Such knowledge among factors such as the historical context of mining current coal mining flows and volumes of water technology used and processes followed information and communication and vested interests influence social constructions of the water quality What counts as the truth about water varies depending on the individual s perspective their purpose and their individual interests Further how one defines water quality influences what treatment processes are preferred in order to improve water quality The book explains why for example a treatment process meant to improve water quality gained a bad reputation by the public because of the South African government s silo approach The book explains how these social constructions are entrenched in power relations between stakeholders regarding AMD treatment and illustrates how power was used to influence decisions to improve the water quality of the Blesbokspruit The case presented in this book offers insights and recommendations for policymakers working in water governance including means to influence social constructions of water quality and ways to clarify roles and responsibilities in pursuit of improved cooperative government

Stolen Child - In-Between Adele DeGirolamo, 2015-09-04 This is the second novel that belongs to the Stolen Child Tale This book finds us where book one has left off and takes us into the Realm of the Space In Between the Land of the Selkies and their unusual World where Kashandarhh the Witch s father lives It is here she travels to warn him of the Sling s arrival back into their land and to ask him to help her bring the Ka afrey Covens together to keep the creature away from finding the last two remaining offspring of the Tuatha De Danann Meanwhile Sibrey who has been able to escape the Tracker who was hunting her has been taken into the Kingdom of the Sky People while the Dragon Lords sent to protect her have started to go missing along the edges of their home land This tale also introduces you to the Dark Sidhe Queen who has taken two of the Dragon Lords prisoner down below in her Dark World just as the Dragons themselves start to disappear from the Continent of Water's Deep

Freshwater Fisheries Ecology John F. Craig, 2015-11-09 Inland fisheries are vital for the livelihoods and food resources of humans worldwide but their importance is underestimated probably because large numbers of small local operators are involved Freshwater Fisheries Ecology defines what we have globally what we are going to lose and mitigate for and what given the right tools we can save To estimate potential production the dynamics of freshwater ecosystems rivers lakes and estuaries need to be understood These dynamics are diverse as are the earth's freshwater fisheries resources from boreal to tropical regions and these influence how fisheries are both utilized and abused Three main types of fisheries are illustrated within the book artisanal commercial and recreational and the tools which have evolved for fisheries governance and management including assessment methods are described The book also covers in detail fisheries development providing information on improving fisheries through environmental and habitat evaluation enhancement and rehabilitation aquaculture genetically modified fishes and sustainability The book thoroughly reviews the negative impacts on fisheries including excessive harvesting climate change toxicology impoundments barriers and abstractions non native species and eutrophication Finally key areas of future research are outlined Freshwater Fisheries Ecology is truly a landmark publication containing contributions from over 100 leading experts and supported by the Fisheries Society of the British Isles The global approach makes this book essential reading for fish biologists fisheries scientists and ecologists and upper level students in these disciplines Libraries in all universities and research establishments where biological and fisheries sciences are studied and taught should have multiple copies of this hugely valuable resource About the Editor John Craig is Editor in Chief of the Journal of Fish Biology and has an enormous range of expertise and a wealth of knowledge of freshwater fishes and their ecology having studied them around the globe including in Asia North America Africa the Middle East and Europe His particular interests have been in population dynamics and life history strategies He is a Fellow of the Linnean Society of London and the Royal Society of Biology reckon with this legacy and transcend it Social change as it was understood in the 20th century appears now to be as impossible as revolution leaving the left to rethink the relationship between capitalist crises as well as the conceptual tension between revolution and reform Populated by an array of passionate thinkers and thoughtful activists Rethinking Revolution reappraises the historical effects of the Russian revolution positive and negative on political intellectual and cultural life and looks at consequent revolutions after 1917 Change needs to be understood in relation to the distinct trajectories of radical politics in different regions But the main purpose of this Socialist Register edition one century after Red October is to look forward to what might happen next Acclaimed authors interrogate and explore compelling issues including Greg Albo New socialist strategies or detours Jodi Dean Are the multitudes communing Revolutionary agency and political forms today Adolph Reed Are racial minorities revolutionary agents Zillah Eisenstein Revolutionary feminisms today Nina Power Accelerated technology decelerated revolution David Schwartzman Beyond global warming Is solar communism possible Andrea Malm Revolution and counter revolution in an era of climate change

Industrial Policy and the Transformation of the Colonial Economy in Africa Horman Chitonge, 2021-02-15 Industrial Policy and the Transformation of the Colonial Economy in Africa offers an in depth analysis of the role industrial policy can play in the transformation of African economies Using examples from Zambia's industrial development experience this book illustrates that core features of the colonial economy have not just survived six decades of independence in most African countries but they have continued to shape the nature scope and pace of economic activities on the continent The book argues that since the colonial economy in Africa was not intended to serve the interests of Africans it is imperative that the structures and the underlying rationale of the colonial economy are radically reoriented if economic activities in Africa are to benefit the majority of Africans Drawing from the Zambian experience the book shows that the transformation of the colonial economy in Africa is urgently needed Whilst this has proved to be difficult over the past six decades it can be done The book outlines a specific type of industrial policy Frontier Industrial Policy as a key instrument for transforming the structure of African economies At a time when economic growth across Africa is under considerable pressure due to COVID 19 the insights in this book will be of interest to researchers across Economics Development Postcolonial Studies and African Studies

English-Medium Instruction from an English as a Lingua Franca Perspective Kumiko Murata, 2018-08-06 English is increasingly used as a lingua franca ELF in communicative situations the world over with the acceleration of globalisation This is in line with the increased introduction of English medium instruction EMI to higher education institutions in many parts of the world to further promote both students and faculty's mobility to make them competitive and employable in the globalised world and to make their institutions more attractive and reputable EMI and ELF however are rarely explicitly investigated together despite the fact that the spread of EMI cannot be separated from that of ELF This volume tackles the issue head on by focusing on EMI in higher education from an ELF perspective The volume includes contributions by Asian European Middle Eastern South

American and Anglo American scholars It discusses language policies attitudes and identities analyses of classroom EMI practices case studies and finally pedagogical implications from an ELF perspective incorporating also theoretical and empirical issues in conducting EMI courses programmes The volume will be of great interest and use not only to those who are conducting research on ELF EMI CLIL language policy and related fields but also to classroom teachers and policy makers who are conducting and or planning to start EMI courses programmes in their institutions or countries all over the world

Crossing the Human Threshold Matt Pope, John McNabb, Clive Gamble, 2017-11-22 When was the human threshold crossed What is the evidence for evolving humans and their emerging humanity This volume explores in a global overview the archaeology of the Middle Pleistocene 800 000 to 130 000 years ago when evidence for innovative cultural behaviour appeared The evidence shows that the threshold was crossed slowly by a variety of human ancestors and was not confined to one part of the Old World Crossing the Human Threshold examines the changing evidence during this period for the use of place landscape and technology It focuses on the emergence of persistent places and associated developments in tool use hunting strategies and the control of fire represented across the Old World by deeply stratified cave sites These include the most important sites for the archaeology of human origins in the Levant South Africa Asia and Europe presented here as evidence for innovation in landscape thinking during the Middle Pleistocene The volume also examines persistence at open locales through a cutting edge review of the archaeology of Northern France and England Crossing the Human Threshold is for the worldwide community of students and researchers studying early hominins and human evolution It presents new archaeological data It frames the evidence within current debates to understand the differences and similarities between ourselves and our ancient ancestors

The Rhodesian War Paul L. Moorcraft, Peter McLaughlin, 2016-01-20 A political and military analysis of this conflict in southern Africa with maps photos and a new introduction assessing its long aftermath A half century after the Universal Declaration of Independence this superb book depicts the military history of Southern Rhodesia from the first resistance to colonial rule through the period of UDI by the Smith government to the Lancaster House agreement that transferred power There are vivid accounts of the operations against the black nationalist guerillas by the security forces and the intensity of the fighting and courage of the participants will surprise and enthrall readers Atrocities were undoubtedly committed by both sides as the protagonists played for very high stakes But this is more than just a book on military operations The authors are able to provide expert analysis of the historical situation and examine events well into the twenty first century including Mugabe's operations against rival tribes and white farmers With a new introduction this is essential reading for those wishing to learn more about a counterinsurgency campaign and why despite the ingenuity of the Rhodesian military fighting against overwhelming odds and restricted by sanctions the outcome culminating in the Lancaster House Agreement was inevitable
