

Class Valedictorian Speech Sample

Introduction:

After all those days of wondering, wondering if we would make it to the end, FINALLY, HERE WE ARE AT THIS VERY MOMENT THAT marks the summit of our journey. Graduating class of 2014-2015, PLEASE join me in welcoming our guests. To our guest of honour, Ms. Mellizza Soriano, to our Chief Executive Mentor, Dr. Genevieve Ledesma-Tan, to our school President, Dr. Marl V. Fernal, to our Principal for Basic Education, Ms. Marie-Vic Suarez, the management team, school officials, honored guests, dedicated teachers, beloved parents and fellow graduates, a pleasant morning to all OF YOU!

General Gratitude:

On behalf of every student here, I would like to express my sincerest gratitude to all the teachers and mentors we've had in life. You are the candles that light the way. Thank you for using your precious time and wisdom for us. You HAVE taught us and still are teaching us to achieve excellence. You help us on our way to success. I believe that we're a much better person NOW than we would have been had we not met all of you. I would also like to thank all the parents for your endless support and patience for all of us. You have lovingly cared for us all these years and set the foundation for our future. There are not enough words to express how thankful all of us are.

Change:

March 27, 2015. A MARK IN OUR HISTORIES THAT COMMEMORATES the hard work... of not just the graduates, but also the teachers and parents. It is a very special day that won't be forgotten even if we leave Southville. Today, we acknowledge and give recognition to the people we've met, the lessons we've learned, the tears, the laughter, and the memories we've shared in our years as grade school students. For everything we take with us, there is something that we leave behind. This school year was filled with fond memories. It gave us good and also bad experiences. It taught us many things. Most of us, if not all, are brimming with joy that we're finally done with it, that it's all over now. But it isn't. With every door shut, opens another. Now, this isn't necessarily a bad thing.

Same Difference Rosalind Barnett, Caryl Rivers, 2009-03-25 From respected academics like Carol Gilligan to pop psych gurus like John Gray and even the controversial Harvard President Lawrence Summers the message has long been the same Men and women are fundamentally different and trying to bridge the gender gap can only lead to grief But as the New York Times Book Review raved Barnett and Rivers debunk these theories in a no-nonsense way offering a refreshingly direct i.e. unashamedly judgmental critique of traditional parental roles tututting at the couples they interviewed who cling to stereotyped ideas of the family Blending case histories new research and thoughtful analysis the writers describe the divide between the sexes as a crevice not a chasm The good news We're all a lot more flexible than the gender cliché

SENE, THE GODDESS OF TRIBAL EMPOWERMENT Dr. Bhupinder Singh IAS [Retd.], 2022-07-10 Dr Bhupinder Singh IAS Retd has devoted himself to social justice in the cause of tribals and marginalised sections of India passionately evolving concepts and driving policies etc during his entire career in the Indian Administrative Service and post retirement a total of nearly six decades He brought energy empathy passion and scholarship to what he regarded not a job but life's dedicated goal He is widely recognised as a thought leader and authored three committees seminal reports The first one on Jharkhand led to the formation of the new state The Bodo Councils were born out of the report on Plains tribes of Assam The tribal customized Panchayat system in Scheduled Areas of nine States burgeoned based on the recommendations in the third report for the proposed law on extension of the provisions of the Constitution 73rd amendment Act 1992 to Scheduled Areas Federal India was historically reconfigured As a member of the second Commission on Scheduled Areas and Scheduled Tribes set up by the Government of India under Article 339 1 he played a key role in its activities and particularly in writing in major part its 2004 report Post retirement he continues to tirelessly champion the cause in many ways The Author felt the need to turn to fiction since any number of Central and State reports have produced disproportionately lower outcomes He hopes that a work of sociological fiction might spread interest among members of civil society and create waves among millions of tribal friends all over the country through the messages of goddess Sene delivered hopefully in their own languages to demand and secure their rights and entitlements democratically

Who Will Water the Flowers? CADET #271 (Louis F. Horner), 2016-05-23 aThe author invites you to embark on a journey to provoke your thinking about friendship opportunity and race relations in America This may take you in a direction you had not previously considered as you navigate the course of your own life Resetting your own sails may reap rewards The author's inspiration to write came from a startling spiritual experience which he describes in The Awakening This led to introspection and an urgent sense that a story must be told More than twenty years passed before he understood the specifics of why what and when he was to write He tells of his 2002 epiphany and a story spanning three quarters of a century Mr Horner tells a story of overcoming adversity and making a full life beyond what his racial and family background might predict He tells a story of working class boys from divergent roots building lifelong bonds beginning in military college Everyone has a story In telling his Mr Horner answers the question Who will water the flowers Testimonial As a PMC cadet of the class of 1963 I found the book a compelling read Many of the stories by the class of 62 relate and resonate with my experiences and without speculation probably to PMC cadets at large The complex thoughts of boys to men strangers who through leadership subsumed their individual needs for the greater good of a brotherhood of men This is a complex formula for those who have not been in the cauldron the formative chemistry of all of us good and bad To me the most compelling aspect of the book was the author's journey through life and the role of PMC friendship mentorship and leadership played in his life's journey The lessons learned of this journey may help us set the course to make our great nation better General John H Tillie USA Retired

Leading Out Loud Terry Pearce, 2003-06-03 As the cycle of change increases its speed leadership communication is becoming more important than ever Since the original publication of Leading Out Loud in 1995 the development of a leader's message has become as critical to success as the delivery of that message In this new and revised edition of his highly praised work Terry Pearce explains how the events of recent years including the information revolution worldwide focus on terrorism and the revelation of corporate scandals have significantly increased the importance of authenticity in leadership to build loyalty in organizations This new edition focuses on the source of a message for change its development as a platform for leadership communication and its many forms of expression from speeches to e-mails, memos, and even informal water cooler conversation. Pearce shows leaders in business, politics, and nonprofits how to communicate their values and vision to inspire commitment. He provides tools and examples from well-known leaders as well as less-known but effective change agents. Leading Out Loud gives readers concrete methods for improving their own communication by guiding them to do the internal work necessary for creating an honest and compelling vision and by demonstrating how readers can find their authentic voice and articulate their messages with confidence. People make commitments, says Pearce, to causes they value and to people they respect and trust. An authentic voice and an inclusive perspective are requisites for any leader who would inspire change. Trust is built by communicating from both the mind and the heart, speaking directly to the minds and hearts of others, listening to their response, and respecting their points of view. All leaders will benefit from Pearce's wisdom, as will anyone else who wants to inspire positive change through others.

You Shall Not Condemn Jennifer M. McBride,2022-06-13 This book tells the story of Kelly Gissendaner the only woman on Georgia s death row until her execution in 2015 and highlights the role theological studies played in her faith and in advocacy efforts on her behalf Central to the book is the written correspondence between Kelly and German theologian J rgen Moltmann known internationally as the theologian of hope After reading Moltmann s work in a course taught by McBride at the prison Kelly began a five year correspondence with him When Kelly was denied clemency a local and international advocacy movement arose that was rooted in her theological studies and friendship with him The advocacy campaign challenged Christians who supported the death penalty to re examine basic truths of Christian faith As it was unfolding the story of Kelly s transformation changed people s minds not only about her case but also about the death penalty itself Weaving together powerful storytelling and theological expertise McBride recounts that story again here with an aim toward abolition and offers practical ways that readers may enter the work

Security Strategy and Transatlantic Relations Roland Dannreuther,John Peterson,2006-09-27 In this much needed study of current strategic thinking on both sides of the Atlantic a diverse collection of leading European and American analysts are assembled to tackle key questions that remain unanswered in the existing literature how much do new security strategies signal convergence or divergence in US and EU foreign and security policy doctrine what tangible political and policy impacts can be attributed to new security strategies what are the implications for US and EU policies towards specific regions what are the prospects for collective transatlantic action The legacy of 9 11 is scrutinized against the backdrop of the strategic thinking that preceded it In the 1990s the US struggled to develop a new doctrine for American foreign policy seeking at various times to promote a New World Order or democratic enlargement For its part the EU had tried to underpin its new Common Foreign and Security Policy with a coherent set of European values multilateralism human rights environmental protection and poverty reduction that were best defended via collective European action Key continuities and changes in these transatlantic efforts since 9 1 1 are clearly identified and closely examined
