The One I Love Richard Bradbury , 2020-05-14 John s writings are both ethereal and practical On the one hand he deals with some of the most profound truths of the Christian gospel and then brings us up short with his black and white statements concerning who is in and who is out The dialogues between Jesus and the Pharisees in this gospel sound very harsh to a Western ear there are no punches pulled But these are surrounded by miracles and healings and the profound I Am statements that fall from the pages and cause us to watch and listen in awe and wonder We see the same contrast of profundity and practicality in John s letters as he speaks of Jesus in hushed tones and then condemns those who reject Jesus as antichrist John makes the purpose of his gospel clear John 20 31 He does it in such a way that tells and paints an unmistakable portrait of Jesus that people come to know who He is and put their faith in Him In his letters John aims to deal with error concerning the person of Jesus and to ensure the church remains on track At the centre of all John s writings is a simple message to the Church love one another

Everybody Hurts - A Foray into the Minor Prophets Richard Bradbury, 2017-11-23 Many see the Minor Prophets as dusty old men who are irrelevant to the 21st Century world However on further reading we encounter real people who were brave enough to challenge the attitudes and behaviours of their generation Speaking prophetically they called their nation back to God even when it cost them personally which it usually did They suffered harassment rejection and sometimes death but proclaimed their message faithfully That is why I have called this book everybody hurts their message was painful to deliver and painful to receive As you read this book you will find out a little more about these men and the context in which they were bringing their message This includes a synopsis of the political and social situation of the times as well as a view of the history that formed the backdrop to their words The message they were given to bring into those situations is summarised and then mapped to our own context The reader will be left in no doubt that the words of these men are as relevant today as when they were first given This book contains a prophetic message that speaks right into our own generation which we would do well to heed Richard Bradbury is based in Beverley East Yorkshire and leads Beverley Community Church He also represents the Groundlevel network of churches in Churches Together in England Married with four children his primary gifting is as a teacher to the Body of Christ Book reviews online PublishedBestsellers website
