The Bridegroom Ha Jin, 2001-01-16 From the remarkable Ha Jin winner of the National Book Award for his celebrated novel Waiting a collection of comical and deeply moving tales of contemporary China that are as warm and human as they are surprising disturbing and delightful In the title story the head of security at a factory is shocked first when the handsomest worker on the floor proposes marriage to his homely adopted daughter and again when his new son in law is arrested for the crime of homosexuality In After Cowboy Chicken Came to Town the workers at an American style fast food franchise receive a hilarious crash course in marketing deep frying and that frustrating capitalist dictum the customer is always right Ha Jin has triumphed again with his unforgettable storytelling in The Bridegroom

Approaches to Teaching Chaucer's Canterbury Tales Peter W. Travis, Frank Grady, 2014-01-01 Chaucer's Canterbury Tales was the subject of the first volume in the Approaches to Teaching series published in 1980 But in the past thirty years Chaucer scholarship has evolved dramatically teaching styles have changed and new technologies have created extraordinary opportunities for studying Chaucer This second edition of Approaches to Teaching Chaucer's Canterbury Tales reflects the wide variety of contexts in which students encounter the poem and the diversity of perspectives and methods instructors bring to it Perennial topics such as class medieval marriage genre and tale order rub shoulders with considerations of violence postcoloniality masculinities race and food in the tales The first section Materials reviews available editions scholarship and audiovisual and electronic resources for studying The Canterbury Tales In the second section

Approaches thirty six essays discuss strategies for teaching Chaucer's language for introducing theory in the classroom for focusing on individual tales and for using digital resources in the classroom The multiplicity of approaches reflects the richness of Chaucer's work and the continuing excitement of each new generation's encounter with it Brill's Content,2001

The New Yorker Harold Wallace Ross,Katharine Sergeant Angell White,2000-10 Reading Practices, Postcolonial Literature, and Cultural Mediation in the Classroom Ingrid Johnston,Jyoti Mangat,2012-03-24 In this book Johnston and Mangat consider ways in which particular postcolonial and multicultural literary texts are able to provide a space of cultural mediation for readers from various backgrounds The studies described in the five chapters of the book explore the spaces of convergence of identity culture and literature with students and teachers in high school contexts and undergraduates in university settings In each study readers are responding to texts that are culturally distant from their own literary and experiential histories An objective of each study was to consider the nature of the cultural locations of the reader and the text and the interstitial spaces between these locations The book interrogates readers attempts to negotiate cultural difference in literary contexts and questions how this negotiation requires reading practices traditionally ignored in North American classrooms The book will offer educators at the secondary and post secondary levels rich material to draw upon for a rethinking of the school curriculum and will be of interest to scholars of postcolonial and literary studies
