poet's book, chapbook, and broadside publications from 1948 through 1998. The bibliography utilizes the methodology developed by Donald Gallup for his landmark bibliographies of T. S. Eliot and Ezra Pound. The full entries for over 150 primary items include title page transcriptions, collations, and full publishing histories. Charles Bukowski was the author of six novels and many books of stories and poems. In addition, he was the author of scores of obscure chapbooks and broadsides published by small presses. Many of these fugitive publications have never been properly documented and remain relatively unknown. This bibliography describes all of them in full detail for the first time.

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
