The Routledge

International Handbook to Veils and Veiling Anna-Mari Almila, David Inglis, 2017-07-06 Veils and veiling are controversial topics in social and political life generating debates across the world The veil is enmeshed within a complex web of relations encompassing politics religion and gender and conflicts over the nature of power legitimacy belief freedom agency and emancipation In recent years the veil has become both a potent and unsettling symbol and a rallying point for discourse and rhetoric concerning women Islam and the nature of politics Early studies in gender doctrine and politics of veiling appeared in the 1970s following the Islamic revival and re veiling trends that were dramatically expressed by 1979 s Iranian Islamic revolution In the 1990s research focussed on the development of both an Islamic culture industry and greater urban middle class consumption of Islamic garments and dress styles across the Islamic world In the last decade academics have studied Islamic fashion and marketing the political role of the headscarf the veiling of other religious groups such as Jews and Christians and secular forms of modest dress Using work from contributors across a range of disciplinary backgrounds and locations this book brings together these research strands to form the most comprehensive book ever conceived on this topic As such this handbook will be of interest to scholars and students of fashion gender studies religious studies politics and sociology

Inflammatory Bowel Disease Nursing Manual Andreas Sturm, Lydia White, 2019-01-24

This comprehensive manual discusses the many aspects of inflammatory bowel disease IBD providing relevant information along with practical guidance The reader is also directed to additional resources for extra and current information This book comes at a time when the number of people suffering from the two major forms of IBD ulcerative colitis UC and Crohn's disease CD is rising around the globe. Despite their huge impact on daily life and health economics, these diseases are not fully understood and diagnosis and treatment remains a significant challenge. IBD nurses are increasingly recognised as key clinicians within the multidisciplinary team caring for people with IBD. Through experience and specialist knowledge, IBD nurses provide timely support, advice and treatment for people living with this unpredictable condition. IBD nurses are also well placed to liaise with the wider team developing patient-centred services which best fit their local health framework. The combined international expertise and accessible guidance here will equip nurses or any clinician wanting to increase their competence in IBD management. Thereby, this manual aims to contribute to the optimisation of IBD care throughout the world.

The Global Handbook of Media Accountability Susanne Fengler, Tobias Eberwein, Matthias Karmasin, 2021-12-30. The Global Handbook of Media Accountability brings together leading scholars to de-Westernize the academic debate on media accountability and discuss different models of media self-regulation and newsroom transparency around the globe. With examination of the status quo of media accountability in 43 countries worldwide, it offers a theoretically informed comparative analysis of accountability regimes of different varieties. As such, it constitutes the first interdisciplinary academic framework comparing structures of media accountability across all continents and creates an invaluable basis for further research and policymaking. It will therefore appeal to scholars and students of media studies and journalism, mass communication, sociology and political science, as well as policymakers and practitioners.

Evaluating Public Communication Jim Macnamara, 2017-09-05. Evaluating Public Communication addresses the widely reported lack of rigorous outcome and impact-oriented evaluation in advertising, public relations, corporate, government, political and organizational communication and specialist fields such as health communication. This transdisciplinary analysis integrates research literature from each of these fields of practice as well as interviews, content analysis and ethnography to identify the latest models and approaches. Chapters feature a review of 30 frameworks and models that inform processes for evaluation in communication, including the latest recommendations of industry bodies, evaluation councils and research institutes in several countries, recommendations for standards based on contemporary social science research and industry initiatives such as the IPR Task Force on Standards and the Coalition for Public Relations Research Standards, an assessment of metrics that can inform evaluation, including digital and social media metrics, 10 informal research methods and over 30 formal research methods for evaluating public communication, evaluation of public communication campaigns and projects in 12 contemporary case studies. Evaluating Public Communication provides clear guidance on theory and practice for students, researchers and professionals in PR, advertising and all fields of communication.
