Beyond the Makerspace Ann Shivers-McNair,2021-06-07 Makerspaces local workshops that offer access to and training on fabrication technologies often with a focus on creativity education and entrepreneurship proliferated in the 2010s popping up in cities across the world Beyond the Makerspace is a longitudinal ethnographically informed study of a particular Seattle makerspace that begins in 2015 and ends with the closing of the space in 2018 Examining acts of making with objects tools words and relationships Beyond the Makerspace reads making as a kind of rhetoric or meaning making work and argues that acts of making things are rhetorical in the sense that they are culturally situated and that they mark boundaries of what counts as making and who counts as maker By focusing on a particular makerspace over time Shivers McNair attends to a changing cohort of makerspace regulars as they face challenges of bringing their vision of inclusivity and diversity to fruition and offers an examination of how makers are made and unmade and remade in a makerspace Beyond the Makerspace contributes not only to our understanding of making and makerspaces but also to our understanding of how to study making and meaning making more broadly in ways that examine and intervene in the marking of difference Thus the book examines what and whose values and practices we are taking up when we identify as makers or when we turn a writing classroom or a library space into a makerspace Research Awards Index ,1977 The Internationalization of US

Writing Programs Shirley K Rose,Irwin Weiser,2018-04-02 The Internationalization of US Writing Programs illuminates the role writing programs and WPAs play in defining goals curriculum placement assessment faculty development and instruction for international student populations The volume offers multiple theoretical approaches to the work of writing programs and illustrates a wide range of well planned writing program based empirical research projects As of 2016 over 425 000 international students were enrolled as undergraduates in US colleges and universities part of a decade long trend of increasing numbers of international students coming to the United States for both undergraduate and graduate degrees

Writing program administrators and writing teachers across the country are beginning to recognize this changing demographic as a useful catalyst for change in writing programs which are tasked with preparing all students regardless of initial level of English proficiency for academic and professional writing The Internationalization of US Writing Programs is the first collection to focus specifically on this crucial aspect of the roles and responsibilities of WPAs who are leading efforts to provide all students on their campuses regardless of nationality or first language with competencies in writing that will serve them in the academy and beyond Contributors Jonathan Benda Michael Dedek Christiane Donahue Chris W Gallagher Kristi Girdhar Tarez Samra Graban Jennifer E Haan Paula Harrington Yu Kyung Kang Neal Lerner David S Martins Paul Kei Matsuda Heidi A McKee Libby Miles Susan Miller Cochran Matt Noonan Katherine Daily O Meara Carolina Pelaez Morales Stacey Sheriff Gail Shuck Christine M Tardy Stanley Van Horn Daniel Wilber Margaret Willard Traub The Journal of Education Thomas Williams Bicknell, Albert Edward Winship, Anson Wood Belding, 1894 Encyclopedia of Immigration and Migration in the American West Gordon Morris Bakken, Alexandra Kindell, 2006-02-24 Through sweeping entries focused biographies community histories economic enterprise analysis and demographic studies this Encyclopedia presents the tapestry of the West and its population during various periods of migration Examines the settling of the West and includes coverage of movements of American Indians African Americans and the often forgotten role of women in the West's development Guide to College Writing Assessment Peggy O'Neill, Cindy Moore, Brian Huot, 2009-04-15 While most English professionals feel comfortable with language and literacy theories assessment theories seem more alien English professionals often don't have a clear understanding of the key concepts in educational measurement such as validity and reliability nor do they understand the statistical formulas associated with psychometrics But understanding assessment theory and applying it by those who are not psychometricians is critical in developing useful ethical assessments in college writing programs and in interpreting and using assessment results A Guide to College Writing Assessment is designed as an introduction and source book for WPAs department chairs teachers and administrators Always cognizant of the critical components of particular teaching contexts O'Neill Moore and Huot have written sophisticated but accessible chapters on the history theory application and background of writing assessment and they offer a dozen appendices of practical samples and models for a range of common assessment needs Because there are numerous resources available to assist faculty in assessing the writing of individual students in particular classrooms A Guide to College Writing Assessment focuses on approaches to the kinds of assessment that typically happen outside of individual classrooms placement evaluation exit examination programmatic assessment and faculty evaluation Most of all the argument of this book is that creating the conditions for meaningful college writing assessment hinges not only on understanding the history and theories informing assessment practice but also on composition programs availing themselves of the full range of available assessment practices Fruit Grower, 1911 Innovation Systems and Environmental Technologies Morrigan
