Appealing to God or Man Nicholas J. Campbell, 2025-03-31 Appealing to God or Man Contrasting Barrenness and Family Death Narratives in the Hebrew Bible and Ancient Near East argues for a reevaluation of barrenness type scenes in the Hebrew Bible and ancient Near East More specifically the argument is for a distinction women in family death narratives appeal to men while women in barrenness narratives appeal to God Even the male centric epics of the ancient Near East show that women interact with the divine more during barrenness crises e g the wife s prophetic dream in the Etana myth than during family death crises e g male divine narratives in Kirta and Aqhat This distinction not only clarifies the narrative tropes but emphasizes the role of women in these crises and intersects with discussions of household roles in the ancient Near East Male and female roles in marriage and fertility drive the responses of characters in these idealized narrative worlds especially in family death and barrenness narratives

South African Who's who ,1911 Drugs, Law, People, Place and the State Stewart Williams, Barney Warf, 2017-10-02 Though any psychoactive substance can be revered or reviled as a drug as people s cultural norms shift ultimately its status is determined in law by the state This publication explores the regulation of drugs alcohol and cannabis to heroin and cocaine and practices such as social drinking and public injecting under political regimes Drugs are discussed in their geographical contexts the colonial legacy of cannabis prohibition for bioprospecting in Africa the veracity of the persistent notion of the narco state Turkey s governance of drinking amid civil unrest and alcohol s place in the neoliberal political economy of Ireland In addition drug policies are examined from problems in managing drug related litter in the UK to supervised injecting facility provision in Australia harm reduction in Canada and the global network of drug policy activists Place is significant but porous borders territorial overlaps and multi scalar linkages are influential in remaking the world through current challenges to the war on drugs This book was originally published as a special issue of Space Polity

Seismic Characterization of Carbonate Platforms and Reservoirs J. Hendry, P. Burgess, D. Hunt, X. Janson, V. Zampetti, 2021-08-17 Modern seismic data have become an essential toolkit for studying carbonate platforms and reservoirs in impressive detail Whilst driven primarily by oil and gas exploration and development data sharing and collaboration are delivering fundamental geological knowledge on carbonate systems revealing platform geomorphologies and how their evolution on millennial time scales as well as kilometric length scales was forced by long term eustatic oceanographic or tectonic factors Quantitative interrogation of modern seismic attributes in carbonate reservoirs permits flow units and barriers arising from depositional and diagenetic processes to be imaged and extrapolated between wells This volume reviews the variety of carbonate platform and reservoir characteristics that can be interpreted from modern seismic data illustrating the benefits of creative interaction between geophysical and carbonate geological experts at all stages of a seismic campaign Papers cover carbonate exploration including the uniquely challenging South Atlantic pre salt reservoirs seismic modelling of carbonates and seismic indicators of fluid flow and diagenesis

Proceedings of the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics 2016: Sustainable economies in the information economy Joy E. Akahome, Michael Twum-Darko, Cyril Ogbokor, Nyaniso Mfusi Zonke, T. Sethibe, R. Steyn, Esme Mohammed, Renier Steyn, L.B. Nguenang, Mamorena Lucia Matsoso, Henry N. Ozuru, Julius Akaba, Patient Rambe, Edem Korku Agbobli, Henri-Vincent Ndjave-Ndjoy, Regis Muchemwa, Andre de la Harpe, Konosoang Mpiti, Ayodeji Afolayan, 2016-12-31 Cape Town South Africa 7 Sept 2016 8 Sept 2016 Theme Sustainable economies in the information economy Purpose To share the quality academic papers presented at the International Conference on Business and Management Dynamics ICBMD held from 7 to 8 September 2016 at African Pride Crystal Hotel and Spa in Cape Town As grey literature the proceedings are the contributions made by researchers at the conference and are considered the written record of the work that was presented to fellow conference delegates Methodology The methodology used varies from researcher to researcher but are suitable for the studies conducted Thus on the one hand studies that were subjective in nature used the interpretive paradigm where the qualitative approach adopted made use of the interview method to collect data On the other hand studies that were objectively inclined adopted the positivist philosophy and used survey questionnaires to collect data However there were some academic papers which used mixed methodology because of the nature of the study Whatever methodology used adhered to the ethos of the philosophies underpinning the methodology Contribution made to scholarship The articles come from individual researchers and each article in the proceedings is unique Mostly there is no general argument leading from one contribution to the next However it is interesting to note that in the area of economic performance it was evident that real exchange rate and net foreign direct investment contribute more towards innovations in economic growth With regard to human capital development papers presented evidence that there exists a definite need to explore the phenomenon of personal branding as limited scientific academic research has been done within the field of personal branding or on elements of the topic Thus the outcome argues that personal branding has an influence on leadership style which in turn impacts on organisational performance and related hygiene factors Furthermore it was demonstrated that current methods or strategies for enforcing institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation have not been successful and as such new strategies are needed to reinforce efforts to nurture and invigorate the institutionalisation of knowledge sharing within an organisation With regard to technology and big data impact on organisational performance it was evident that system performance memory consumption and CPU utilisation can be used as criteria to compare and evaluate big data technologies to improve organisational performance Most of the articles contribution reemphasised technology education and training as a means of digitising business and improving effectiveness

Target audience The target readership is academic researchers and business leaders who require access to the latest developments in the fields of economics information management business education development studies social sciences and technology It is also for policymakers and other stakeholders who need a better understanding of the impact of new developments on existing policies and regulations for their review or amendment
