Gérard, 1986-01-01 The first major comparative study of African writing in western languages European language Writing in Sub Saharan Africa edited by Albert S G rard falls into four wide ranging sections an overview of early contacts and colonial developments Under Western Eyes chapters on Black Consciousness manifest in the debates over Panafricanism and Negritude a group of essays on mental decolonization expressed in Black Power texts at the time of independence struggles and finally Comparative Vistas sketching directions that future comparative study might explore An introductory essay stresses the millennia of writing in Africa side by side with a richly eloquent and artistic set of vernacular oral traditions written and oral traditions have become interwoven in adaptations of imported forms and linguistic innovations that challenge traditional high literary norms G rard uses the mathematical concept of fuzzy sets to explain why the focus on Black Africa has led him to set aside for future analysis the literatures produced in North Africa which fall under the influence of Muslim civilization as well as the diasporic literatures of the New World Over sixty scholars from twenty two countries contribute specialized studies of creative writing by leading authors in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries such as Achebe Mphahlele Ngugi Senghor Soyinka and Tutuola Critical analyses are organized primarily around regions reflecting different colonial languages imposed through schools and other social institutions Some authors trace the adaptation of western genres others identify syncretism with folktales or myths The volumes are attentive to the heterogeneity of national literatures addressed to polyethnic and multilingual populations and they note the instrumental politics of language in newly independent states A closing chapter Tasks Ahead identifies areas for future scholars to explore Noble Hill Lynne Fernands, 2013 The summer of twenty six had pushed the thermometer past 90 degrees for the first ten days of July wearing down those who abode inland suffering because they lived a few miles away from the cooling breezes of the North Atlantic There wouldn't be much time for fun this summer Working all day in the hot sun was taking its toll Jethro and Mary Preston and their family of six live on an idyllic farm called Noble Hill A spirited group they move through their lives with selfishly devised methods and total disregard of others Jethro is raising his children to be winners and won't accept anything less but he adapts his plan accordingly because he has a different vision for each of his children His formidable personality pushes his youngest son Charles to fulfill his own dream but the youngest Sadie proves to be a handful even for the awe inspiring Jethro However his choice for the middle child Nathan will put his son into a situation that seems impossible to win and constantly subjects the boy to unfair treatment Nate meets the abuse with unwavering dedication barely flinching when his older siblings John and Camille cruelly taunt and trick him His parents appear to overlook his worth relentlessly testing his determined nature and as Nate's life becomes more difficult he tries to find solace in his relationship with his younger sister Emma who has been selected to accompany her brother in the daily labor on the farm The devoted boy eventually realizes that if he is to survive he must dig into the deep recesses of his soul to find the fortitude to prevail Follow Nathan and his siblings through the trials and tribulations of life on Noble Hill

Social Networking in South-Eastern Europe Maria Baramova, Grigor Boykov, Ivan Parvev, 2021 Social Networking in South Eastern Europe in the 15th 19th centuries exhibits specific characteristics the Ottomans and the Habsburgs for example each have their pattern of building and using social networks with the Third South Eastern Europe i.e. the vassal principalities in the Balkans and the re-created national states staying closer in the Ottoman pattern It seems that the Muslim Oriental social traditions established in the Balkans during Ottoman rule had a clear impact on the building of networks and the exercising of social influence The specific regional practices once established were very hard to overcome or to replace by other patterns of social networking These practices however could easily interact in border areas with one other giving the inhabitants on both sides of the frontier the possibility of living a socially amphibious life at least in terms of Social Networking

Operation Thunderhead Clive Hallam, 2010-12-27 It is the year 2039 and the planet teeters on the brink of environmental disaster Continued over production and pollution has depleted all resources and made it difficult for people to find the staples of life food water even clean air are all becoming increasingly difficult to find Countries stand on the brink of war over resources and the big political powers position themselves to covertly control the aftermath The Cairo Environment Summit in the summer is meant to allow everybody to come to a point of agreement on what to do but the ageing political powerhouses seem intent only on injuring each other The Old World wants immediately to limit activity to reduce the human impact of over production Their New World antagonists aren't convinced wanting to survey the planet's resources and human activity ostensibly to identify the real causes but really to consolidate their position before cuts happen Whoever gains the upper hand in the war of words stands to win the war However both Presidents vacillate over what to do mindful of the opposing and competing political and environmental agendas that could derail the whole process In Europe there is much talking and procrastinating while in the USA the Vice President begins to position himself to take over from an increasingly unpopular President Ever determined to stay one step ahead of the Old World the US turns to its main technology partner who is the world leader in the embedded chip technology Both powers extol the virtues of this interface which allows the user to access the internet and to maintain contact with family friends and work colleagues by providing a direct connection between the brain and outside communications It revolutionises living in the States Europeans are less embracing going for the more limited Omni chip over the American Zeus chip which provides an always on connection After a powerful demonstration of its capabilities the US Government commits itself to a covert operation over which it finds it has increasingly less control It's own Senate Committee investigations on environmental change challenge the wisdom of the country's stance but the two key witnesses soon realise they are fighting a losing battle with all save perhaps the chairperson When the deaths begin mysterious and without apparent cause detectives in Europe seek to find out who might be behind the apparently unconnected but similar sudden deaths In the US secret services agencies wonder whether they can stay on top of the increasing number of human infiltrations that threaten the very security of the country and the military stability of the world

KEY CHARACTERS George Aspen 50 something ex Greenpeace activist and eminent environmentalist He is giving evidence to the Senate Committee along with European counterpart and long time friend Roland Didot on the state of the environment When perfectly healthy Didot dies from an unexplained heart attack George finds himself in a race to save his own life Gary Knight 30 something British detective is confronted with evidence that somebody is able to control the embedded chip now vital for military communications It's his job to find the person responsible and bring them to justice He never thought it would take him to the jungles of Panama masquerading as a network engineer Andrea Callaghan young hot headed but supremely intelligent computer specialist who is called upon to give expert advice on chip technology and finds herself part of a covert team to uncover and stop the organisation infiltrating the chip Tod Carter RAF Typhoon pilot of supreme capability but with the ghost of ex action in Macedonia which saw him compromise He is called in to provide infiltration and exfiltration to Gary and Andrea because of his expert knowledge on a wide range of aircraft Max Stoller enigmatic and controlling CEO of Stoller Industries dreams of controlling the world from behind the scenes using his chip technology to infiltrate the minds of the world's politicians and military leaders When they ask him for help he cannot believe his luck Vladimir Nickolayev a young

Russian gaming and computing expert who is employed by Stoller to increase the ability of the Zeus chip. Supremely arrogant Nickolayev will take any risk and do anything to steal power from Stoller and take the man's dream with him. Sven Amundsen, Norwegian born European President who never seems able to make the difficult decision even though he knows what he needs to do. Driven by committee and destined it seems never to achieve the greatness of say his US or Russian counterparts. Carl Matthews, the US President forced into office by a scandal which rocked the previous administration. Unsure of his popularity and easily diverted from course, Matthews is caretaking until the next elections and appears to be in trouble. Alan d'Amato, Matthews' Italo American vice President who lusts for the power of office and seeks to usurp his commander in chief. d'Amato has a strong sense of duty to his country first and will do anything to ensure that America stands against the rest of the world and comes out on top. Lieutenant Benjamin Foley heads up a crack US Marines unit designed to work behind enemy lines and wreak havoc. Captain Kate Mallory, SAS officer sent to the USA to extract George Aspen so he can give evidence at the Cairo Summit. Appeal Operation Thunderhead is a fast paced thriller with multiple relationships that ranges across the planet. It gives the reader causes to explore as well as think about while having enough pace to encourage page turning. There are multiple threads and storylines which keep the reader guessing while not making it too hard to read and follow. In the style of 24, the action keeps the reader wanting to turn the next page in case they miss any action. And the end isn't necessarily what you think it is.

Letters from Arabia Stephen Bennett, 2024-08-01 Arabia is a land of cardamom flavoured coffee and camel trains, frankincense and fanatics, pirates and pearl fishers, a land where slights are sometimes forgiven but never forgotten and where friendships last forever. Letters from Arabia explores these subjects and more by taking one word from each of the twenty eight letters of the Arabic alphabet as a chapter heading. Each chapter weaves its way through the colourful and complex history of Arabia, illustrating the origins of words used in everyday conversation and providing a Western perspective with the author's account of periods of his life and career spent on Arabian soil. Letters from Arabia is a welcome addition to anyone with even a passing interest in the Middle East and an invaluable addition to any traveller's library.
