Days of Fear

Daniele Mastrogiacomo, 2010-02-23 On March 5 2007 Daniele Mastrogiacomo his driver and his interpreter were captured by the Taliban His captors threatened to execute him if Italy did not immediately withdraw its troops from Afghanistan When Italy refused this demand the driver twenty five year old Sayed Agha was decapitated before Mastrogiacomo s eyes A video of this horrifying event was shown around the world and Mastrogiacomo spent the rest of his time in captivity convinced that a similar fate would soon befall him His jail however was not a dark room hidden away in some urban periphery but a kind of open air prison to escape detection his captors dragged him from village to village through opium plantations along dusty roads and over rugged mountains from one end of Afghanistan to the other It was a captivity that consisted in a continuous and nerve racking confrontation with a world that bore no resemblance to that which he had ever known Mastrogiacomo draws from his experience not only a hostage s tale of captivity but also a story that lies at the heart of the eternal human drama that of a man s encounter with The Other As brilliantly crafted as a first rate suspense novel and with the kind of emotional impact associated with the best literary fiction Mastrogiacomo s story of courage and tenacity in the face of imminent danger is unforgettable
