Dunks and No-Brainers Leslie Savan, 2006-10-10 In this marvelously original book three time Pulitzer Prize finalist Leslie Savan offers fascinating insights into why we're all talking the talk. Duh. Bring it on. Bling. Whatever. And what this reveals about America today. Savan traces the paths that phrases like these travel from obscure slang to pop stardom, selling everything from cars, ads for VWs, Mitsubishis and Mercurys all pitch them as no-brainers. So wars, finding WMD in Iraq was to be a slam dunk. Real people create these catchy phrases but once media, politics and businesses broadcast them, they burst out of our mouths as celebrity words, newly glamorous and powerful. Witty, fun and full of thought-provoking stories about the origins of popular expressions. Slam Dunks and No Brainers is for everyone who loves the mysteries of language. RRB

Writing and Translating Francophone Discourse Paul F. Bandia, 2014-01-01 This book is a much needed contribution to interdisciplinary research on the intersection of French and Francophone Studies and Translation Studies. It highlights the symbiotic relationship between the two disciplines whereby theories and concepts developed in translation studies provide useful models and paradigms for studying francophone literature while major concepts that hold sway in the francophone world provide a solid basis for elucidating and understanding translation phenomena. The book is at once a contribution to the growing field of postcolonial francophone studies and the sub-area of postcolonial translation theory. Contributors are experts from a variety of disciplines and hail from various regions across the globe. What unites them is their interest in translation and its conceptualization both as an interlinguistic practice and a metaphor for intercultural communication and transcultural relations. The contributions draw on literature, film, historical documents and critical theories by French and francophone thinkers, highlighting the significance of translation for African, Caribbean and migrant francophone discourse.
