Physician Leader Hanah Polotsky, Lisa Williams, 2024-02-20 Physicians are often asked to lead healthcare teams departments divisions practices and hospitals Though many of them are experts in their fields they are rarely prepared or educated in business management and leadership Based on the authors interviews with many physician and non physician executives and leaders medical training contributes little to leadership skills Many physicians leave medical training with a command and control leadership style that later has to be unlearned to succeed in a team based healthcare environment This book will help physician leaders to shed derailers and authoritarian leadership tendencies picked up in years of medical training It is intended for 1 physicians who are transitioning to healthcare leadership roles 2 senior level physician and non physician leaders as a coaching model to develop their physician leader direct reports and 3 administrative leaders who are partnering with physician leaders Both authors progressed from mid level leadership roles to the C suite one as a physician leader and one as an administrative leader As such they have leveraged their operational excellence expertise to design the Iterative Leadership Model that includes the leader s mindset Leadership Strategies and a coaching framework GUIDES Gather Understand Identify Design Execute and Self Reflect that is based on the scientific method PDSA Plan Do Study Act A3 thinking and the SOAP Subjective Objective Assessment and Plan note format The authors masterfully integrate personal reflections coaching examples illustrative fictional vignettes and GUIDES exercises to support leaders in the self development and self improvement of seven critical Leadership Attributes strategic thinking effective communication coaching team building change management continuous learning and problem solving

Rebuilding the Walls James Kelly, 2020-06-22 There are few situations in the life of a church that are more disruptive or destructive than the presence of sin in the life of its membership especially the leadership Too often we see the presence of sin as a fatal situation Yet sin properly dealt with rather than destroying the church or those involved may become a catalyst for growth both for the church body and those involved in whatever sin is present Christ and the apostle Paul laid out instructions for taking the presence of sin challenging those involved and restoring their walk with Christ Therefore we must if we consider ourselves as a spiritual people resolve to restore those impacted by sin and see them resume their walk with Christ Gal 6 1
