

Out of Egypt: Moses Parts the Red Sea By JAB

Characters: Moses                      Pharaoh                      Taskmaster                      Slaves                      Voice of God

Moses: On the fourteenth day of this month at midnight, the eldest child in every Egyptian family will die, as well as all the first born of the animals. Now, die exactly as I tell you, and not one of you will die. By the tenth day of this month every house will have a lamb. On the fourteenth day of the month you will slay the lamb and put some of the blood on the sides and the tops of your doors. You will roast the lamb to eat. You are to be dressed to leave Egypt because that night the Lord is coming. The blood on your door will tell the Lord to pass over your house and no one will die. The Lord will save you. This will be called Passover and every year you will keep this feast and remember that the Lord has freed you from slavery in Egypt.

Narrator: That night everything happened just as Moses had predicted. The first born, even in the Pharaoh's house, was found dead. In every Egyptian house someone had died. The Egyptians gave a loud cry when they discovered no Israelites had died. Finally the Pharaoh knew he must listen to Moses and Aaron.

Pharaoh: Moses! Aaron! Be gone! Get all your people, and go now and serve your Lord!

Moses: The Israelites are ready. Our journey will begin; six hundred thousand men, with women and children. God will guide us away with a column of fire in the night and a column of cloud in the day.

Narrator: The column led the people right toward the sea which separated Egypt from the neighboring country. There they camped. Yet the Pharaoh was already regretting his decision to free the people.

Taskmaster: We have work that is not getting done.

Pharaoh: They tricked us. Their magic cannot last.

Taskmaster: The slaves are gone. We need the slaves.

Pharaoh: Ready the chariots. We will get them back.

Taskmaster: How many chariots?

Pharaoh: Six hundred of my finest. Send the best horsemen.

Taskmaster: The slaves are headed to the sea.

Pharaoh: Then we will race them and capture them. Prepare the army. The sea will stop the slaves from escaping. Their magic will be powerless against a sea.
