

Dear Solar Power International 2012 Exhibitor,

Thank you for choosing to exhibit at the Solar Power International 2012 Conference and Exposition, September 10-13, 2012 in Orlando, Florida at the Orange County Convention Center.

This Exhibitor Service Manual is designed to provide you with all the information necessary for a successful show. One of the most important benefits of this manual is that it is designed to save your company time and money. Please review and share this with your staff and/or approved Exhibitor Appointed Contractor's involved with your participation at SPI '12. A deadline checklist is included in the first section of the manual to remind you to place advance orders, which will save you money and valuable time as you get closer to the show.

This information can also be accessed online through the Exhibitor Service Center. Additionally, I would like to highlight a few important reminders for this year's event:
