Shigeru Ban Cardboard Cathedral:

Shigeru Ban Andrew Barrie, 2014 What role does architecture play in the face of natural disaster What sort of ideas and what sort of materials be used to restart a community How can the new draw from the old One of the world's leading architects Shigeru Ban has confronted those issues in the wake of natural disasters around the globe In 2012 he is working in Christchurch to build his largest structure ever a Cardboard Cathedral to stand in for the cathedral at Christchurch's heart which suffered devastating damage in the 2011 earthquake Ban is the most important international architect to have worked in New Zealand and the building will be of enormous local and international interest Written by architect and leading scholar of Japanese architecture Professor Andrew Barrie and fully illustrated with architectural drawings and newly commissioned photography of the environment the people and the building this book will offer visual and verbal insight into great architecture and its social role This will be a book for anyone interested in contemporary architecture and to all those looking toward what the future might hold for Christchurch

Shigeru Ban Bridgit Anderson, 2015 When the 22nd of February 2011 earthquake struck and the Cathedral in the Square was no longer accessible the Diocese of Christchurch lost its mother church and the people of Canterbury lost a beloved symbol of their province The Cardboard Cathedral project captured the imagination of many nationally and internationally The building slowly rose put together step by step tube by tube day by day the handwork of those who believed in the idea Back cover

Design Research in Architecture Murray Fraser, 2021-07-28 What is the role of design research in the types of insight and knowledge that architects create That is the central question raised by this book It acts as the introductory overview for Ashgate's major new series Design Research in Architecture which has been created in order to establish a firm basis for this emerging field of investigation within architecture While there have been numerous architects scholars since the Renaissance who have relied upon the interplay of drawings models textual analysis intellectual ideas and cultural insights to scrutinise the discipline nonetheless until recently there has been a reluctance within architectural culture to acknowledge and accept the role of design research as part of the discourse However in many countries around the world one of the key changes in architecture and architectural education over the last decade has been the acceptance of design as a legitimate research area in its own right and this new series provides a forum where the best proponents of architectural design research can publish their work This volume provides a broad overview on design research that supports and amplifies the different volumes coming out in the book series It brings together leading architects and academics to discuss the more general issues involved in design research At the end there is an Indicative Bibliography which alludes to a long history of architectural books which can be seen as being in the spirit of design research

A world without maps Jane M. Simpson,2016-11-01 In poems that range from the minimalist to the theatrical Jane Simpson evokes the fascinatingly unfamiliar world of the Arabian Peninsula where she found her preconceptions about Muslim women completely shattered She writes of home and family with great tenderness Choked forms wonderfully match the sensations of grief In a synthesis of home and abroad science and art the poems reveal a compassionate searching gaze in a world without maps Interior Design Masters Mark Hinchman,Elyssa Yoneda,2018-06-27 Interior Design Masters contains 300 biographical entries of people who have significantly impacted design They are the people historical and contemporary that students and practitioners should know Coverage starts in the late Renaissance with a focus on the twentieth and twenty first centuries The book has five sections with the entries alphabetical in each so it can serve as a history textbook and a reference guide The seventeenth and eighteenth century section covers figures from Thomas Chippendale to Horace Walpole The nineteenth century section includes William Morris and Candace Wheeler The early twentieth century section presents modernism s design heroes including Marcel Breuer Eileen Gray and Gilbert Rohde The post World War II designers range from Madeleine Castaing to Raymond Loewy The final contemporary section includes Ron Arad and the Bouroullec brothers These are the canonical figures who belong to any design history The book also contains less well known figures who deserve attention such as Betty Joel the British art deco furniture designer Paul Veyseyre the Frenchman active in China in the 1930s and more recently Lanzavecchia Wai the Italian Singaporean duo whose work ranges from health care to helicopters Global in its coverage the book is richly illustrated with over 600 black and white and color photographs

Building with Paper Ulrich Knaack, Rebecca Bach, Samuel Schabel, 2022-12-19 Paper and cardboard as sustainable building materials are currently the subject of research and testing They can be produced inexpensively are made from renewable raw materials and are completely recyclable The focus of their application is on temporary uses such as for transitional schools emergency shelters or microhomes Properly protected from moisture and fire the material proves to be durable Design and aesthetic qualities are by no means neglected as case studies by Pritzker Prize winner Shigeru Ban demonstrate the Chengdu Elementary School the Paper Concert Hall in Aquila or the Cardboard Cathedral in Christchurch all provided a sign of hope after devastating earthquakes This introduction explains the technology of building with cardboard and paper and shows a wide range of examples

The Villa At the Edge of the Empire Fiona Farrell, 2015-06-24 A provocative and insightful exploration of rebuilding our homes communities and cities after their devastation Where are we How did we get here Where do we go now From nineteenth century attempts to create Utopias to America s rustbelt from Darwin s study of worms to China s phantom cities this work ranges widely through history and around the world It examines the evolution of cities and of Christchurch in particular looking at its swampy origins and its present reconstruction following the recent destructive earthquakes And it takes us to L Aquila in Italy to observe another shaken city Farrell writes as a citizen caught up in a devastated city in an era when political ideology has transformed the citizen to an asset the raw material on which empire makes its profit In a hundred tiny pieces she comments on contentious issues such as the fate of a cathedral the closure of schools the role of insurers the plans for civic venues Through personal observation conversations with friends a close reading of everything from the daily newspaper to records of other upheavals in Pompeii and Berlin this dazzling book explores community the love of place and ultimately regeneration and renewal

Architecture Timed Karen A. Franck, 2016-03-07 The traditional veneration of architecture for its monumental and enduring qualities seems to be changing Architects and other designers are moving away from seeking permanence towards a more open creative use of what time has to offer This is revealed in new approaches to historic preservation the proliferation of temporary structures concerns regarding sustainability and the employment of time efficient processes Architecture Timed explores the role of ideas about time in the design inclinations and choices of contemporary designers of the environment Contributors consider how the new can be incorporated into the old how designing for the very short term has significant advantages how what is temporary can be re used and how the design of materials buildings and landscapes can improve sustainability and enhance experiences of time passing Many designers have replaced the ideal of timelessness and the view of time as a series of singular static moments with an enriched and more nuanced perspective treating time as a source of inspiration to be embraced not a condition to be defended against Contributors include Juhani Pallasmaa Brian McGrath Federica Goffi Jill Stoner Richard Garber and Eric Parry Designers featured include Agence Ter Shigeru Ban BanG Studio Diller Scofidio Renfro EMF Landscape Architects Gluck GRO Architects Interboro Partners Toyo Ito Kengo Kuma Enric Miralles Eric Parry Architects Carlo Scarpa Taylor Cullity Lethlean UNStudio and Peter Zumthor
