Shona Set S For 2014:

Arts, Pedagogy and Cultural Resistance Anna Hickey-Moody, Tara Page, 2015-11-11 Arts Pedagogy and Cultural Resistance brings cultural studies perspectives to bear on Arts practices Each contribution synthesizes creative approaches to philosophy and new materialist understanding of practice to show how human nonhuman interaction at the core of Arts practice is a critical post human pedagogy Across fine art dance gallery education film and philosophy the book contends that certain kinds of Arts practice can be a critical pedagogy in which tactical engagements with community space place and materiality become means of not only disrupting dominant discourse but also of making new discourses come to matter It demonstrates how embodied located acts of making can materially disrupt cultural hegemony and suggest different ways the world might materialize It argues that the practice of Arts making is a post human cultural pedagogy in which people become part of a broader assemblage of matter and all aspects of this network are solidified in objects or processes that are themselves pedagogical In doing so the book offers a fresh and theoretically engaged perspective on arts as pedagogy

Chihera in Zimbabwe Ezra Chitando, Sophia Chirongoma, Munyaradzi Nyakudya, 2023-02-27 Zimbabwean social media has been awash with images of a woman character spirit or concept called Chihera Traditionally a woman descending from the Mhofu Eland lineage totem is known as Chihera In the cumulative tradition of the Shona a Zimbabwean ethnic group Chihera is a fiercely independent assertive free spirited and no nonsense woman This volume seeks to deepen reflections on the Chihera phenomenon in the context of the search for gender justice in Zimbabwe and Africa The authors reflect on how this radical indigenous feminist ethic circulating on social media can animate the quest for Zimbabwean and African women s full liberation from patriarchy and all oppressive forces They grapple with the issue of generating culturally sensitive theories and approaches to galvanize the struggle for African women s liberation in post colonial settings Second they locate the Chihera mystique in the context of the practical struggle for women s empowerment Third the volume illustrates how the Chihera phenomenon could be utilized for gender justice in Zimbabwe and beyond Political Economy of Contemporary African Popular Culture Kealeboga Aiseng, Israel A. Fadipe, Phillip Mpofu, 2024-04-01 Drawing on examples from across the continent this volume examines socially significant aspects of contemporary African popular culture including music cultures fandoms and community mass and digital media to demonstrate how neoliberal politics and market forces shape the cultural landscape and vice versa Contributors investigate the role that the media politicians and corporate interests play in shaping that landscape highlight the crucial role of the African people in the production and circulation of popular culture more broadly and furthermore demonstrate how popular culture can be used as a tool to resist oppressive regimes and challenge power structures in the African context Scholars of political communication cultural studies and African studies will find this book particularly useful Civil Society in Zimbabwe Mandlenkosi Mpofu, Dion Nkomo, Kirk Helliker, 2025-09-01 This book considers the historical and spatial dimensions of civil society in Zimbabwe s Matabeleland region an area suffering from severe development and democratic deficits over many decades Transcending an organisational conception of civil society and a simplistic state civil society dualist understanding it recognises the dynamic character of civil society as a social space inclusive of less formalised associational forms of collective life as well as the colonial character and legacies of civil society both analytically and empirically This book facilitates a nuanced understanding of the specificities of the social political and economic evolution of Matabeleland in colonial and post colonial Zimbabwe and the region s troubled relations with the central state Historically it traces civil society in Matabeleland from the region s resistance against the colonial settler state to contemporary struggles for justice given the unresolved Gukurahundi legacy Civil society is depicted as constituted by a set of complex and shifting struggles for justice not simply between Matabeleland and the central state but also internally within Matabeleland along multiple fault lines including class and culture The relevance of understanding civil society in Matabeleland for Zimbabwe and Africa more widely is brought to the fore The book will be of interest and value to scholars of civil society politics and democratisation across the African continent

Gender and Noun Classification

Eric Mathieu, Myriam Dali, Gita Zareikar, 2019 This volume explores the many ways by which natural languages categorize nouns into genders or classes The findings in the volume have significant implications for syntactic theory and theories of interpretation and contribute to a greater understanding of the interplay between inflection and derivation

Mother Earth, Mother Africa & African Indigenous Religions Nobuntu Penxa Matholeni, Georgina Kwanima Boateng, Molly Manyonganise, 2020-08-04 Africans embrace all of life the humanity of each person the world and the creation of God Consequently African indigenous education reflects the completeness of life itself The various chapters in this volume recount religious events and experiences from individual perspectives as they are unfolding on the continent The different voices show how modernity colonisation urbanisation Christianity and technology have sidelined beliefs and practices of African traditional religions ATRs to the detriment of the environment This volume brings together voices from leading proponents of ATRs and African religious heritage to help us appreciate how values are richly entrenched in African religious life It demonstrates the detailed richness of ATRs and culture and showcases how far the academic study of ATRs in Africa has come and calls for a concerted effort through partnership between various actors to ensure environmental sustainability
