Lobola (Bridewealth) in Contemporary Southern Africa Lovemore Togarasei,Ezra Chitando,2021-02-03 This volume explores the multiple meanings and implications of lobola in Southern Africa The payment of lobola often controversially translated as bridewealth is an entrenched practice in most societies in Southern Africa Although having a long tradition of late there have been voices questioning its relevance in contemporary times while others vehemently defend the practice This book brings together a range of scholars from different academic disciplines national contexts institutions genders and ethnic backgrounds to debate the relevance of lobola in contemporary southern African communities for gender equality

Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska,2016-10-04 In Black and White Agnieszka Piotrowska presents a unique insight into the contemporary arts scene in Zimbabwe an area that has received very limited coverage in research and the media The book combines theory with literature film politics and culture and takes a psychosocial and psychoanalytic perspective to achieve a truly interdisciplinary analysis Piotrowska focuses in particular on the Harare International Festival of the Arts HIFA as well as the cinema featuring the work of Rumbi Katedza and Joe Njagu Her personal experience of time spent in Harare working in collaborative relationships with Zimbabwean artists and filmmakers informs the book throughout It features examples of their creative work on the ground and examines the impact it has had on the community and the local media Piotrowska uses her experiences to analyse concepts of trauma and post colonialism in Zimbabwe and interrogates her position as a stranger there questioning patriarchal notions of belonging and authority Black and White also presents a different perspective on convergences in the work of Doris Lessing and iconic Zimbabwean writer Dambudzo Marechera and how it might be relevant to contemporary race relations Black and White will be intriguing reading for psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychotherapeutically engaged scholars film makers academics and students of post colonial studies film studies cultural studies psychosocial studies and applied philosophy

Robert Mugabe, Kcb Esau Ncube,2020-02-13 Robert Mugabe KCB is about two countries forced into one by British imperialistic interests cemented by the optimism of African nationalism and plundered by the wrath of Africa s longest serving tyrant It traces 19th Century King Mzilikazi and his peoples settlement in Matabeleland through the colonization of Mashonaland in 1890 the destruction and occupation of the Ndebele State in 1893 by the B S A Company before examining the politics of African nationalism by ZAPU and ZANU in the quest for black majority rule It dissects the gukurahundi genocide unleashed by the independent and majoritarian government on the ethnic minorities of Matabeleland and the Ndebele speaking parts of the Midlands province It interrogates the concepts of gukurahundism policy of annihilation zanuism longevity of the leader and his her ethnic group and mugabeism mastery of demagoguery in order to deceive It portrays the genocide and the three isms as the four pillars that have sustained the leprosy that ravaged the Zimbabwean anatomy from day one of independence to two years after

Mugabe's unceremonious fall by the barrel of the same gun that had ushered him in in 1980 Ncube explores possible solutions which include a rotational presidency devolution of government power federalism restoration of the Ndebele monarchy and the secession of the pre colonial Mthwakazi State from Zimbabwe

Shaping Sound and Society Stephen Cottrell, 2023-09-13 This volume brings together leading voices from the new wave of research on musical instruments to consider how we can connect the material aspects of instruments with their social function approaches that have been otherwise too frequently separated in musical scholarship Shaping Sound and Society: The Cultural Study of Musical Instruments locates the instruments at the centre of cultural interactions With contributions from ten scholars spanning a variety of methodologies and a wide range of both contemporary and historic music cultures the volume is divided into three sections Contributors discuss the relationships between makers performers and their local communities the different meanings that instruments accrue as they travel over time and place and the manner in which instruments throw new light on historic music cultures Alongside the scholarly chapters the volume also includes a selection of shorter interludes based on interviews with makers of comparatively new instruments offering further insights into the process of musical instrument innovation An essential read for students and academics in the fields of music and ethnomusicology this volume will also interest anyone looking to understand how the cultural interaction of musical instruments is deeply informed and influenced by social technological and cultural change
