User's Guide to SEAWAT Weixing Guo,Christian David Langevin,2002 A User's Guide to Postcolonial and Latino Borderland Fiction Frederick Luis Aldama,2010-01-01

Why are so many people attracted to narrative fiction How do authors in this genre reframe experiences people and environments anchored to the real world without duplicating real life In which ways does fiction differ from reality What might fictional narrative and reality have in common if anything By analyzing novels such as Arundhati Roy's The God of Small Things Amitav Ghosh's The Glass Palace Zadie Smith's White Teeth and Hari Kunzru's The Impressionist along with selected Latino comic books and short fiction this book explores the peculiarities of the production and reception of postcolonial and Latino borderland fiction Frederick Luis Aldama uses tools from disciplines such as film studies and cognitive science that allow the reader to establish how a fictional narrative is built how it functions and how it defines the boundaries of concepts that appear susceptible to limitless interpretations Aldama emphasizes how postcolonial and Latino borderland narrative fiction authors and artists use narrative devices to create their aesthetic blueprints in ways that loosely guide their readers' imagination and emotion In A User's Guide to Postcolonial and Latino Borderland Fiction he argues that the study of ethnic identified narrative fiction must acknowledge its active engagement with world narrative fictional genres storytelling modes and techniques as well as the way such fictions work to move their audiences
