important component of any plan for achieving better health Why Begin Juicing Nature is the best medicine Hippocrates Ancient Greek Physician and the Father of Medicine People start juicing because they want to feel better look better and age better But getting enough nutrients and eating healthy food is often difficult due to poor eating habits a busy lifestyle or not knowing which foods are the most nutritious Most people don't get enough nutrients solely from their diet This is due to the food processing methods and the amount of time it takes to get food from farm to table These delays have led to today's food containing fewer nutrients than it did in the past Environmental toxins and high stress levels can increase our requirements for many nutrients and our diets don't come close to providing them Juicing allows us to absorb nutrients quicker and more completely because our gut doesn't have to work to digest the fiber contained in whole fruits and vegetables While fiber is important juicing allows you to introduce nutrients directly into your bloodstream Healthy bacteria are introduced to our digestive system when we drink fresh juices Our gut biome the trillions of bacteria viruses and fungi which live in our digestive tract can affect our well being from our brain health to our immune system Fruit and vegetable juices contain minerals and phytonutrients which have been found to protect against cancer heart disease and some inflammatory diseases They also contain flavonoids and anthocyanins which serve as antioxidants meaning they guard against oxidative cellular damage Juicing can help cleanse and alkalize your body When your body is too acidic your red blood cells clump together and it's difficult for oxygen to reach all your cells Green leafy vegetables and grasses are effective in balancing your pH level which keeps your body running at optimum health by allowing your red blood cells to flow freely and deliver oxygen efficiently Juicing is an easy convenient way to extract vitamins and other nutrients from fruits and vegetables It's easy to find a juicing regimen which will fit your lifestyle and provide the vitamins and minerals that you need to reach your desired goal Whether you want to lose weight stay healthy or have better looking skin juicing can help you get there Ready to start juicing Discover healthy juice recipes juicing benefits and more on Absolute Juicing Live A Healthier Lifestyle eBook
