

A black and white photograph of a person, likely a woman, juggling several flaming torches. The person is seen from the side, wearing a light-colored, short-sleeved top. The torches are in various stages of being tossed or caught, with bright yellow and orange flames. The background is dark, making the fire stand out.

A MALLORY NOVEL

Shell Game Kathy Mallory Book Five:

Shell Game Carol O'Connell,1999 Kathleen Mallory suspects a televised magic trick that results in death is a murder not an accident Will there be another death Shell Game Carol O'Connell,2000-08-01 She hit the New York Times list with Bone by Bone Now her repackaged backlist will fly off the shelves When a legendary magic trick goes horribly awry on national TV detective Kathleen Mallory knows the gruesome death won't be the last For misdirection is the heart of all magic and perfect crimes The American Police Novel Leroy Lad Panek,2015-09-17 The American police novel emerged soon after World War II and by the end of the century it was one of the most important forms of American crime fiction The vogue for either Holmesian genius or the plucky amateur detective dominated mystery fiction until mid century the police hero offered a way to make the traditional mystery story contemporary The police novel reflects sociology and history and addresses issues tied to the police force such as corruption management and brutality Since the police novel reflects current events the changing natures of crime court procedures and legislation have an impact on its plots and messages An examination of the police novel covers both the evolution of a genre of fiction and American culture in general This work traces the emergence of the police officer as hero and the police novel as a significant popular genre from the cameo appearances of police in detective novels of the 1930s and 1940s through the serial killer and forensic novels of the 1990s It follows the ways in which professional writers and police officers turned writers view the police individually and collectively The work chronicles the ways in which changes in the law and society have affected the actions of the police and shows how the protagonists of police novels have changed in gender race nationality sexual orientation and age over the years The major writers examined begin with Julian Hawthorne in the nineteenth century and include such writers as S S van Dine Ellery Queen Erle Stanley Gardner Ed McBain Chester Himes MacKinley Kantor Hillary Waugh Dorothy Uhnak Joseph Wambaugh Bob Leuci W E B Griffin and Carol O Connor Mystery Women, Volume Three (Revised) Colleen Barnett,2010-12-31 Like other fictional characters female sleuths may live in the past or the future They may represent current times with some level of reality or shape their settings to suit an agenda There are audiences for both realism and escapism in the mystery novel It is interesting however to compare the fictional world of the mystery sleuth with the world in which readers live Of course mystery readers do not share one simplistic world They live in urban suburban and rural areas as do the female heroines in the books they read They may choose a book because it has a familiar background or because it takes them to places they long to visit Readers may be rich or poor young or old conservative or liberal So are the heroines What incredible choices there are today in mystery series This three volume encyclopedia of women characters in the mystery novel is like a gigantic menu Like a menu the descriptions of the items that are provided are subjective Volume 3 of Mystery Women as currently updated adds an additional 42 sleuths to the 500 plus who were covered in the initial Volume 3 These are more recently discovered sleuths who were introduced during the period from January 1 1990 to December 31

1999 This more than doubles the number of sleuths introduced in the 1980s 298 of whom were covered in Volume 2 and easily exceeded the 347 series and some outstanding individuals described in Volume 1 which covered a 130 year period from 1860 1979 It also includes updates on those individuals covered in the first edition changes in status short reviews of books published since the first edition through December 31 2008 The Man Who Cast Two Shadows Carol

O'Connell,1996-07-01 Formerly a child of the streets now a brilliant computer hacker and NYPD sergeant Kathleen Mallory's powerful intelligence is matched only by the ferocity with which she pursues her own unpredictable vision of right and wrong And she will need every bit of that intensity now in a murder case that strikes close to home in more ways than one Great

Women Mystery Writers Elizabeth A. Blakesley,2006-11-30 Mysteries are among the most popular books today and women continue to be among the most creative and widely read mystery writers This book includes alphabetically arranged entries on 90 women mystery writers Many of the writers discussed were not even writing when the first edition of this book was published in 1994 while others have written numerous works since then Writers were selected based on their status as award winners their commercial success and their critical acclaim Each entry provides biographical information a discussion of major works and themes and primary and secondary bibliographies The volume closes with appendices and a selected general bibliography Public library patrons will value this guide to their favorite authors while students will turn to it when writing reports Library Journal ,2000 The Library Journal ,2000 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Make Mine a Mystery Gary Warren Niebuhr,2003-04-30 Presents a comprehensive guide for mystery and detective fiction compiling over 2 500 titles from more than 200 authors and including plot overviews a history of the genre and a discussion on collection development The Judas Child Carol O'Connell,2010-06-01 It is three days before Christmas and two young girls have disappeared from the local academy This hasn't happened for fifteen years since Rouge Kendall's twin sister was murdered The killer was found but now Rouge twenty five and a policeman is forced to wonder Was he really the one Also wondering is a former classmate named Ali Cray a forensic psychologist with scars of her own The pattern is the same she says a child called out to meet a friend The friend is the bait the Judas child and is quickly killed But the primary victim lives longer until Christmas Day Rouge doesn't want to hear this He's spent the last fifteen years trying to avoid the memories drinking alone lying low washing out of school and a promising first career Now he might abandon law enforcement too but something won't let him not yet A little girl has haunted his dreams all these years and he has three days finally to put her to rest Shell Game Carol O'Connell,2000 At a sell out festival of magicians in Manhattan in front of a live audience and eight million television viewers a death defying trick goes tragically wrong Detective Sergeant Kathy Mallory was convinced that this was murder and a murder which mysteriously might be connected with the death of a woman half a century ago O'Connell gradually performs the magic of a master storyteller exposing the lonely heart of Mallory and the vengeance of a killer Strange and mysterious Mallory's fifth outing takes the reader to places no other crime writer visits. It's a trip worth making. Val McDermid Juror Number Eleven Terry Devane, 2003 The legal duo of Mairead O'Clare and Sheldon Gold have just completed the successful defense of Gold's boyhood friend Big Ben Friedman on a murder charge.
