Shona Set Books For Advanced Level:

Now That the Dust Has Settled Athanasio Dzagagu, 2015-03-26 In this book I try to explore why one section of the Catholic Community connected with the late Archbishop Chakaipa was overtaken by great remorse when he died while another went into jubilation This leads me into the examination of what kind of person Archbishop Chakaipa was I do this in the context of his family background and his priestly and Episcopal ministries He was of the Unendoro clan with a history tracing back to Karanga roots In his Seminary years he wrote five Shona novels which became very influential in developing Shona literacy He earned enduring respect across the entire Zimbabwean nation for this achievement Within Church circles Archbishop Chakaipas name is synonymous with the policy of self reliance which was his signal achievement in the Archdiocese of Harare He was determined to see the development of indigenous Zimbabwean writers frustrated that the world of ideas in Zimbabwe was dominated by Eurogenic of European origin missionaries In his view such Eurogenic intellectual domination undermined Zimbabwean and African independence In the book I argue that while Archbishop Chakaipa was a hero indeed one deserving of canonisation as a Catholic saint true respect for him should also acknowledge his negative qualities The Brigandshaw Chronicles Box Set (Books 1 to 3) Peter Rimmer, 2018-06-28 Canonization and Teaching of African Literatures, 2024-11-25 Zimboficious Anthology: Volume 3 Rinos Mwanaka, 2018-09-23 Zimboficious Anthology An Anthology of Zimbabwean Literature and Arts Volume 3 contains 5 short stories 51 poems 1 nonfiction piece and 3 drawings from Zimbabwean writers and artists Zimbabwe continues to tumble on its unshakable political trajectory since Robert Mugabe was removed as president via a military coup Much of the writing in this anthology addresses both the current political situation and the hope of the Zimbabweans for a free and fair election in 2018 Within the pieces a lot of questions anger mistrust remain alongside uncertainties around the enigmatic political landscape of Zimbabwe and the Zimbabwean people Despite this the writers have a lot to celebrate and also touch on issues to do with love morality spirituality tradition relationships family identity individuality and joy Harold-Barry: A Mission Divided, 2023-04-05 ELEVEN JESUITS SET OUT FOR THE INTERIOR OF SOUTHERN AFRICA BY OX WAGON IN APRIL 1879 ON A MISSION TO PREACH THE CHRISTIAN GOSPEL TO THE PEOPLE BEYOND THE LIMPOPO RIVER WITHIN A YEAR AND A HALF THREE OF THEM WERE DEAD They shared the same ignorance of Africa as their European contemporaries concerning disease geography culture religion and the political rivalries of the people among whom they came They also shared a narrow frame of reference towards the continent and the failure of imagination that went with it Further as people of their time they saw and were seen by other denominations as rivals and far from co operating the churches indulged in an unseemly competition And yet these men were in their own way heroic and faced the difficulties eagerly even joyfully Their failures and disappointments far outweighed the little progress they appear to have made but they laid the foundations for what was to follow after 1890 when the colony of Southern Rhodesia was established This event inaugurated a ninety year period when relations between church and state waxed and waned The missionaries welcomed the order even if it could not be called peace and the infrastructure the colonisers introduced The speed of travel for instance went from about 15 km a day by ox wagon to 30 km an hour by train But the Church and the Jesuits were for long the drivers of what we mean by Church never managed to decide on a coherent policy vis a vis the white government until it was too late They were divided the majority of Jesuits worked with blacks but there was a sizeable number who worked exclusively with whites So while we can document the enormous and fruitful work that was done over the decades after 1890 we have to acknowledge the failure to give a united witness in confronting the nakedly racist policies of the state If we had been able to do this in the 1920s and 30s we might have contributed to the evolution of a more harmonious society and avoided the terrible bloodshed of subsequent years

Moto ,2001 Zimbabwe National Bibliography ,1986 Religion, Women's Health Rights, and Sustainable Development in Zimbabwe: Volume 2 Sophia Chirongoma,Molly Manyonganise,Ezra Chitando,2022-08-26 This volume brings to the fore the interface of religion women s sexual reproductive health and rights SRHR and the sustainable development goals SDGs in Zimbabwe It emphasizes that empowering African women is a pivotal pillar for attaining sustainable development Contributors discuss the need for implementing structural changes as a prerequisite for social progress and development to occur in Southern Africa They interrogate the extent to which religious beliefs and practices either promote or impede women s SRHR The contributors also proffer several ways in which addressing the themes of health for all and equality for all women and girls can make a meaningful contribution towards the fulfillment of the goals set for Agenda 2030

Indigenous Shona Philosophy Pascah Mungwini,2017-12-29 Some of the most provocative questions confronting philosophers in Africa are grounded in the historical memory of conquest and the peripheralisation the continent Mungwini offers a critical reconstruction of indigenous Shona philosophy as an aspect of the African intellectual heritage held hostage by colonial modernity In this comprehensive work he lays bare the thoughts of the Shona who are credited with the founding of the ancient Great Zimbabwe civilisation Retracing the epistemic thread in the fabric of Shona culture and philosophy he explores the assumptions that inform their thinking The exchange of such knowledge is fundamental to the future of humanity Practice in Second Language Learning Christian Jones,2018-03-15 Five Implications for Research Conclusion References Index Australian National Bibliography ,1978 Sign and Taboo Robert Muponde,Mandivavarira Maodzwa-Tarvinga,2003 Yvonne Vera s Nehanda 1993 signaled the presence of new and remarkable writing in Zimbabwe and her four subsequent novels have confirmed her stature as one of the most important African novelists of the 1990s Her art is alert to public life and manifests the decisive moments of Zimbabwe s anticolonial resistance the growth of the township culture and the competing demands of the city and the rural home She records public experience through the consciousness of her female characters but in prose as densely allusive as poetry does not allow her style to register with a conventional realism her characters always experiencing more than they understand and seeing more than they and the reader may recognize This work brings together critics from Zimbabwe South Africa Britain the Caribbean and the United States demonstrating through a diversity of approaches the complex beauty of Vera's work It shows how Vera expanded the formal possibilities of the African novel by placing the experiences of women at the center of literature and in so doing retold and recreated Zimbabwe's history and imaginative life El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2005, 2005 Matatu, 1990 List of Publications Deposited in the Library of the National Archives, 1971 Education and Development in Zimbabwe Edward Shizha, Michael T. Kariwo, 2012-01-01 The book represents a contribution to policy formulation and design in an increasingly knowledge economy in Zimbabwe It challenges scholars to think about the role of education its funding and the egalitarian approach to widening access to education The nexus between education democracy and policy change is a complex one The book provides an illuminating account of the constantly evolving notions of national identity language and citizenship from the Zimbabwean experience The book discusses educational successes and challenges by examining the ideological effects of social political and economic considerations on Zimbabwe's colonial and postcolonial education Currently literature on current educational challenges in Zimbabwe is lacking and there is very little published material on these ideological effects on educational development in Zimbabwe This book is likely to be one of the first on the impact of social political and economic meltdown on education The book is targeted at local and international academics and scholars of history of education and comparative education scholars of international education and development undergraduate and graduate students and professors who are interested in educational development in Africa particularly Zimbabwe Notwithstanding the book is a valuable resource to policy makers educational administrators and researchers and the wider community Shizha and Kariwo's book is an important and illuminating addition on the effects of social political and economic trajectories on education and development in Zimbabwe It critically analyses the crucial specifics of the Zimbabwean situation by providing an in depth discourse on education at this historical juncture The book offers new insights that may be useful for an understanding of not only the Zimbabwean case but also education in other African countries Rosemary Gordon Senior Lecturer in Educational Foundations University of Zimbabwe Ranging in temporal scope from the colonial era and its elitist legacy through the golden era of populist universal elementary education to the disarray of contemporary socioeconomic crisis covering elementary through higher education and touching thematically on everything from the pernicious effects of social adjustment programmes through the local deprofessionalization of teaching this text provides a comprehensive wide ranging and yet carefully detailed account of education in Zimbabwe This engagingly written portrayal will prove illuminating not only to readers interested in Zimbabwe's education specifically but more widely to all who are interested in how the sociopolitical shapes education how ideology policy international pressures economic factors and shifts in values collectively forge the historical and contemporary character of a country's education Handel Kashope Wright Professor of Education University of British Columbia The Next Page: A Fiction Sampler for Book Clubs Shona
