Borges and Translation Sergio Gabriel Waisman, 2005 This book studies how Borges constructs a theory of translation that plays a fundamental role in the development of Argentine literature and which in turn expands the potential for writers in Latin America to create new and innovative literatures through processes of re reading rewriting and mis translation The book analyzes Borges s texts in both an Argentine and a transnational context thus incorporating Borges s ideas into contemporary debates about translation and its relationship to language and aesthetics Latin American culture and identity tradition and originality and center periphery dichotomies Furthermore a central objective of this book is to show that the study of the importance of translation in Borges and of the importance of Borges for translation studies need not be separated Furthermore translation studies has much to gain by the inclusion of Latin American thinkers such as Borges while literary studies has much to gain by in depth considerations of the role of translation in Latin American literatures Sergio Waisman is an Assistant Professor of Spanish at The George Washington University The Selected Writings of William Hazlitt Vol 9 Duncan Wu, Tom Paulin, David Bromwich, Stanley Jones, Roy Park, 2020-04-15 William Hazlitt is viewed by many as one of the most distinguished of the non fiction prose writers to emerge from the Romantic period This nine volume edition collects all his major works in complete form Three Gothic Novels E. Lawrence and the Culture of Homoerotic Desire Feras Alkabani, 2024-09-19 In the 19th and early 20th centuries the Arabic speaking regions of the Ottoman Empire saw a crucial change in attitudes towards sexuality Notions of respectability propriety and sexual morality were being transformed in literary and cultural discourses a shift that was related to the gradual rise in anti Ottoman Arab nationalism However contemporary Orientalists such as Sir Richard Burton and T E Lawrence were oblivious to certain aspects of this process of cultural reconfiguration While accounts of male love poetry ghazal al mudhakkar were being gradually expurgated from the Arab literary heritage elaborate narratives of Oriental homoerotic desire distinctively characterise the encounters of both Burton and Lawrence with the Arab East By comparing their literary and autobiographical accounts of the Arab Orient with contemporary Arabic literature Feras Alkabani is able to expose this critical disparity in cross cultural portrayals of sexual morality and homoerotic desire Alkabani relates the conflicting agendas of contemporary Orientalists and Arab scholars to the shifts in international imperial power relations and the eventual collapse of the Ottoman Empire His detailed comparative study reveals the significance of homoerotic desire within Orientalist and Arab literary discourses at a time when the meaning and connotations of poetic male love were undergoing a critical change in Arab culture and literature It will prove invaluable for those researching Orientalism nationalism imperialism and manifestations of homoerotic desire in the fin de siècle Middle East Cyclopaedia of English Literature Robert Chambers,1854 Cyclopedia of English Literature Robert
