Education Tamara Bibby, 2011 In classrooms and lectures we learn not only about academic topics but also about ourselves our peers and how people and ideas interact Education An Impossible Profession extends the ways in which we might think about these processes by offering a refreshing reconsideration of key educational experiences including those of being judged and assessed both formally and informally adapting to different groups for different purposes struggling to think under pressure learning to recognise and adapt to the expectations of others

Children, Film and Literacy Becky Parry, 2013-10-22 Children Film and Literacy explores the role of film in children's lives The films children engage in provide them with imaginative spaces in which they create play and perform familiar and unfamiliar fantasy and everyday narratives and this narrative play is closely connected to identity literacy and textual practices Family is key to the encouragement of this social play and at school the playground is also an important site for this activity However in the literacy classroom some children encounter a discontinuity between their experiences of narrative at home and those that are valued in school Through film children develop understandings of the common characteristics of narrative and the particular language of film This book demonstrates the ways in which children are able to express and develop distinct and complex understandings of narrative that is to say where they can draw on their own experiences including those in a moving image form Children whose primary experiences of narrative are moving images face particular challenges when their experiences are not given opportunities for expression in the classroom and this has urgent implications for the teaching of literacy

Thinking Allowed Mick Waters, 2013-04-15 Mick Waters has consistently been a down to earth voice in the increasingly complex world of education for many years He has regularly endeared himself to school communities in the UK and overseas by talking the sort of sense they needed to hear practical challenging inspiring insightful engaging His unique perspective closeness to the classroom and ability to see innovation in terms of its impact on learners mean his views are always worth listening to In this long awaited book Mick tells it how it is The things he believes in The things he wants to see differently Wry reflections humorous insights astute asides and simple ideas to change the system and the future for young people everywhere This is the book you have been waiting for

Punctuation Mary Green, 2006 Specials are a teaching resource designed for KS3 students whose literacy skills are considerably lower than their age These books have an older format to counteract the simple text and cover various topics They include activities visuals and assessment sheets as well as teacher pages
