Characteristics of Living Organisms

In order to identify living organisms, scientists listed 7 characteristics which all living organisms have:

1. Nutrition:

Taking in nutrients which are organic substances and mineral ions, containing raw materials and energy for growth and tissue repair, absorbing and assimilating them.

2. Excretion:

Removal from organisms of toxic materials, the waste products of metabolism and substances in excess.

3. Respiration:

Chemical reactions that break down nutrient molecules in living cells to release energy.

4. Sensitivity:

The ability to detect or sense changes in the environment and to make responses.

5. Reproduction:

Processes that make more of the same kind of organism.

6. Growth:

The permanent increase in size and dry mass by an increase in number of cells, cell size, or both.

7. Movement:

An action by an organism or part of an organism that changes position or place.

The seven characteristics could be memorized by the term "Mrs. Gren".

Zimbabwe Books in Print ,1993 Case Studies in Human Ecology Daniel G. Bates, Sarah H. Lees, 2013-06-29 This volume was developed to meet a much noted need for accessible case study material for courses in human ecology cultural ecology cultural geography and other subjects increasingly offered to fulfill renewed student and faculty interest in environmental issues The case studies all taken from the journal Human Ecology An Interdisciplinary Journal represent a broad cross section of contemporary research It is tempting but inaccurate to suggest that these represent the Best of Human Ecology They were selected from among many outstanding possibilities because they worked well with the organization of the book which in turn reflects the way in which courses in human ecology are often organized This book provides a useful sample of case studies in the application of the perspective of human ecology to a wide variety of problems in different regions of the world University courses in human ecology typically begin with basic concepts pertaining to energy flow feeding relations material cycles population dynamics and ecosystem properties and then take up illustrative case studies of human environmental interactions These are usually discussed either along the lines of distinctive strategies of food procurement such as foraging or pastoralism or as adaptations to specific habitat types or biomes such as the circumpolar regions or arid lands Human and Environmental Security in the Era of Global Risks Mohamed Behnassi, Himangana Gupta, Olaf Pollmann, 2018-10-24 This book discusses ways to deepen the debate on the linkages between global risks and human and environmental security The approach put forward in this book is one of questioning the ability of existing concepts regulatory frameworks technologies and decision making mechanisms to accurately deal with emerging risks to human and environmental security and to act in the direction of effectively managing their impacts and fostering the resilience of concerned systems and resources Empirical research findings from Africa Asia and the Pacific Islands are provided During the last decades the links between emerging risks and the security of humans and nature have been the object of considerable research and deliberations However it is only recently becoming an important focus of policy making and advocacy In this contributed volume it is presumed that the ability or lack thereof to make innovative conceptual frameworks institutional and policy arrangements and technological advances for managing the current emerging risks will foster or undermine the environmental security and consequently determine the future human security Moreover taking into account the links between environmental climate security human security and sustainability will help frame a new research agenda and potentially develop a broad range of responses to many delicate questions

The Life and Social Vision of Oliver Mtukudzi Munyaradzi Mawere, Benjamin Mudzanire, Kizito Muchemwa, 2025-05-27 This compelling book offers a biographical and critical analysis of Oliver Tuku Mtukudzi 1953 2019 a towering music icon of Zimbabwe and Africa Uniquely Tuku achieved global recognition from his homeland his music a powerful reflection on both local and universal human issues Divided into four sections the book traces the socio cultural roots of his distinctive sound exploring the influence of rural Dande and Highfield Township often overlooked colonial era spaces on his artistic vision It further examines his socio cultural impact revealing how his music preserved cultural memory addressed socio political injustices and amplified marginalized voices Finally the book delves into Tuku s artistic virtuosity demonstrating his fusion of Korekore sounds into a cosmopolitan style that engaged with transnational themes Drawing on diverse scholarly perspectives this accessible anthology is ideal for students and scholars across musicology theatre arts literature history social anthropology media cultural studies and African studies Resources in education ,1991

Women Agency, Culture, and Crime in Education Phinias Tafirei, 2023-12-08 In the recent times women agency in African circles has become a contested issue with some arguing that women in African traditional societies lack agentic power including the power to make independent decision The issue has become even more contested in education where culture meets face to face with agency in all its forms In an attempt to get to the bottom of the subject in question this book examines using empirical data from the field an often hidden crime acquaintance rape which for many years has been allowed to spread its tentacles in Africa s institutions of higher education This is to say acquaintance rape has been practised unconsciously in many cultures thereby undermining the agentic power of women in these cultures The book adopts institutions of higher education in Masvingo Province heretofore referred to as Masvingo of Zimbabwe to assess factors affecting students in higher education s perceptions of acquaintance rape The population for this book consisted of students educators and other staff members in institutions of higher education in Masvingo The book reveals that culture gender peer pressure policy and legislation or law affect higher education students perceptions of acquaintance rape The book also establishes that college authorities non academic staff and students have inadequate knowledge of how to effectively manage or deal with acquaintance rape cases due to inadequate policies legislations or laws governing students behaviour in higher education A model to reduce acquaintance rape is proposed It recommends that all institutions of higher education should introduce acquaintance rape prevention and reduction programmes peer education programmes acquaintance rape reduction techniques and acquaintance in the curriculum

Serengeti II A. R. E. Sinclair, Peter Arcese, 1995-08 Serengeti II Dynamics Management and Conservation of an Ecosystem brings together twenty years of research by leading scientists to provide the most thorough understanding to date of the spectacular Serengeti Mara ecosystem in East Africa home to one of the largest and most diverse populations of animals in the world Building on the groundwork laid by the classic Serengeti Dynamics of an Ecosystem published in 1979 by the University of Chicago Press this new book integrates studies of the ecosystem at every level from the plants at the bottom of the visible food chain to the many species of herbivores and predators to the system as a whole Drawing on new data from many long term studies and from more recent research initiatives and applying new theory and computer technology the contributors examine the large scale processes that have produced the Serengeti s extraordinary biological diversity as well as the interactions among species and between plants and animals and their environment They also introduce computer modeling as a tool for exploring these interactions employing this new technology to test and anticipate the effects of social political and economic changes on the entire ecosystem and on particular species and so to shape future conservation and management strategies

Social Change and Development ,1993 Human Rights and the Third World Subrata Sankar Bagchi, Arnab Das, 2012-12-06 Human Rights and the Third World Issues and Discourses deals with the controversial questions on the universalistic notions of human rights It finds Third World perspectives on human rights and seeks to open up a discursive space in the human rights discourse to address unresolved questions citing issues and problems from different countries in the Third World 1 Whether alternative perspectives should be taken as the standard for human rights in the Third World countries 2 Should there be a universalistic notion of rights for Homo sapiens or are we talking about two diametrically opposite trends and standards of human rights for the same species 3 How far these Third World perspectives of human rights can ensure the protection of the minorities and the vulnerable sections of population particularly the women and children within the Third World 4 Can these alternative perspectives help in fighting the Third World problems like poverty hunger corruption despotism social exclusion like the caste system in India communalism and the like 5 Can there be reconciliation between the Third World perspectives and the Western perspective of human rights

The Mammals of the Southern African Sub-region J. D. Skinner, Christian T. Chimimba, 2005-11-15 This third extensively revised edition of The Mammals of the Southern African Subregion contains detailed descriptions of all mammals that occur naturally on the African mainland south of the Cunene and Zambezi rivers together with all mammals indigenous to the subregion s coastal waters The rapid accumulation of new information resulting from mammal research in southern Africa together with radical taxonomic changes across all levels of mammalian classification have necessitated this new edition which presents the best and latest data accurately in one comprehensive volume for use not only by scientists but also by an increasingly wide audience of general readers with an interest in the natural history of southern Africa J D Skinner and C T Chimimba have revised expanded and updated the text in a major project overseen by an editorial committee constituted by the Mammal Research Institute at the University of Pretoria Specialists on each mammalian order have served as subeditors and a range of independent and internationally recognised authorities have reviewed every species description In this edition all the distribution maps and many of the illustrations of mammal prints have been updated and redrawn several new colour plates have been added and the whole design of this definitive reference work has been
