The Ptsd Project Turn Pain To Power:

Performing Trauma in Central Africa Laura Edmondson, 2018-03-26 What are the stakes of cultural production in a time of war How is artistic expression prone to manipulation by the state and international humanitarian organizations In the charged political terrain of post genocide Rwanda post civil war Uganda and recent violence in the Democratic Republic of Congo Laura Edmondson explores performance through the lens of empire Instead of celebrating theatre productions as expression of cultural agency and resilience Edmondson traces their humanitarian imperatives to a place where global narratives of violence take precedence over local traditions and audiences Working at the intersection of performance and trauma Edmondson reveals how artists and cultural workers manipulate narratives in the shadow of empire and how empire in turn infiltrates creative capacities A Treasure Box for Creating Trauma-Informed Organizations Karen

Ronald Eyerman, Jeffrey C. Alexander, Elizabeth Butler Breese, 2015-10-23 Through case studies that examine historical and contemporary crises across the world the contributing writers to this volume explore the cultural and social construction of trauma How do some events get coded as traumatic and others which seem equally painful and dramatic not Why do culpable groups often escape being categorised as perpetrators These are just some of the important questions answered in this collection Some of the cases analysed include Mao's China the Holocaust the Katyn Massacre and the Kosovo trauma Expanding the pioneering cultural approach to trauma this book will be of interest to scholars and postgraduate students of sociology Applied Theatre with Youth Lisa S. Brenner, Chris Ceraso, Evelyn Diaz Cruz, 2021-07-21 Applied Theatre with Youth is a collection of essays that highlight the value and efficacy of applied theatre with young people in a broad range of settings addressing challenges and offering concrete solutions This book tackles the vital issues of our time including among others racism climate crisis gun violence immigration and gender fostering dialogue promoting education and inciting social change The book is divided into thematic sections each opening with an essay addressing a range of questions about the benefits challenges and learning opportunities of a particular type of applied theatre These are followed by response essays from theatre practitioners discussing how their own approach aligns with and or diverges from that of the initial essay Each section then ends with a moderated roundtable discussion between the essays authors further exploring the themes issues and ideas that they have introduced With its accessible format and clear language Applied Theatre with Youth is a valuable resource for theatre practitioners and the growing number of theatre companies with education and community engagement programs Additionally it provides essential reading for teachers and students in a myriad of fields education theatre civic engagement criminal justice sociology women and gender studies environmental studies disability studies ethnicity and race studies

Book of Love and Pain, The Juan-David Nasio,2012-02-01 Addresses the limits in treating pain psychoanalytically and offers a phenomenological description of psychic pain particularly the pain of a lost loved one

Making Peace with Faith Michelle Garred,Mohammed Abu-Nimer,2018-01-15 Although religion is almost never a root cause it often gets pulled into conflict as a powerful element especially where conflicting parties have different religious identities Every faith tradition offers resources for peace and secular policy makers are more and more acknowledging the influence of faith based actors even though there remains a tendency to associate religion more with conflict than peace In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of The contributors are all practitioners whose faith or religious experience motivates their work for peace and justice in such a way that it influences their actions Their roles are diverse as some work for faith based institutions while others engage in secular contexts The multiple perspectives featured represent multiple faiths Muslim Christian Hindu Buddhist Jewish diverse scopes of practice different geographic regions Each chapter follows a similar template to address specific challenges such as dealing with extremist views addressing negative stereotypes about one s faith endorsing violence developing relations with other faith based or secular groups confronting gender based violence and working with people who hold different beliefs In this text practitioners from different faiths relate and explore the many challenges they face in their peacebuilding work which their secular partners may be unaware of They provide a comprehensive view of the practice of peacebuilding in its many challenging aspects for both professionals and those studying religion and peacebuilding alike

Performing Resilience for Systemic Pain Meghan Moe Beitiks,2021-12-30 How might performance serve as a means for facing ubiquitous trauma and pain in humans and ecologies While reflecting on her multidisciplinary work Systems of Pain Networks of Resilience artist Meghan Moe Beitiks considers bodies of knowledge in Trauma Theory Intersectional Feminist Philosophy Ecology Disability Studies New Materialism Object Oriented Ontology Gender Studies Artistic Research Psychology Performance Studies Social Justice Performance Philosophy Performance Art and a series of first person interviews in an attempt to answer that question Beitiks brings us through the first person process of making the work and the real life embodied encounters with the theories explored within it as an expansion of the work itself Facing down difficult issues like trauma discrimination and the vulnerability of the body Beitiks looks to commonalities across species and disciplines as means of developing resilience and cultivating communities Rather than paint a picture of glorious potential utopias Beitiks takes a hard look at herself as an embodiment of the values explored in the work and stays with the difficult sucky troubling work to be done Performing Resilience for Systemic Pain is a vulnerable book about the quiet presence and hard looking needed to shift systems away from their oppressive destructive realities Joyce, Derrida, Lacan and the Trauma of History Christine van Boheemen,1999-09-18 In Joyce Derrida Lacan and the Trauma of History Christine van Boheemen Saaf examines the relationship between Joyce s postmodern textuality and the traumatic history of colonialism in Ireland Joyce s influence on Lacanian psychoanalysis and Derrida s philosophy Van Boheemen Saaf suggests ought to be viewed from a postcolonial perspective She situates Joyce s writing as a practice of indirect witnessing to a history that remains unspeakable The loss of a natural relationship to language in Joyce calls for a new ethical dimension in the process of reading The practice of reading becomes an act of empathy to what the text cannot express in words In this way she argues Joyce s work functions as a material location for the inner voice of Irish cultural memory This book engages with a wide range of contemporary critical theory and brings Joyce s work into dialogue with thinkers such as Zizek Adorno Lyotard as well as feminism and postcolonial theory Depth Psychology and Criminality ISHAAN D. JOSHI,2025-08-31 Depth Psychology and Criminality Jungian Insights into Symbolic and Psychogenic Offending is an operational imperative This landmark volume retools criminal justice professionals with a deeper grammar of human violence Integrating Jungian depth psychology with frontline forensic science it reveals crime as a symbolic act of psychic fracture where ritualistic crimes stem from unintegrated archetypes shadow drives and mythic self narratives This work radically advances investigative psychology and offender rehabilitation It reframes deviance not merely as pathology but as a message coded in symbol enacted through archetype and curable through individuation And for those at the helm of security justice or healing this book demands your attention because it changes how we understand the criminal mind and how we restore it The Childhood Trauma Recovery Workbook for Adults Norman J. Fried,Nathan Spiteri,2024-03-19 Overcome the psychological and physiological effects of childhood trauma with this easy to use workbook of CBT and DBT based exercises and techniques The ideal upbringing for any child prioritizes unconditional love and protection above all else To these healthy children our world is a fair place full of benevolence and wonder However for those who were raised in unhealthy environments or forced into damaging situations this belief may have been warped or shattered entirely leading to the adoption of a negative worldview that has stayed with them all their lives As adults it can be difficult to heal from this trauma It is not however impossible The Childhood Trauma Recovery Workbook for Adults is an accessible guide to clinical and effective healing Based on the principles of cognitive behavioral therapy CBT and dialectical behavioral therapy DBT this workbook contains strategies techniques and exercises to help you overcome and recover from Depression and anxiety Shame and self loathing Grooming and trauma bonding Toxic masculinity Impostor syndrome Self sabotaging behaviors And more Written in collaboration by a seasoned mental health professional and a childhood trauma survivor The Childhood Trauma Recovery

Workbook for Adults is an invaluable resource for adult trauma survivors looking to understand their pain and discover inner peace

Matrix Activism Michela Ardizzoni, 2016-11-03 The intersection of virtual and physical spaces at the heart of contemporary political protests is a pivotal element in new practices of activism In this new and global ecology of dissent and activism different forces stakeholders and spaces once defiantly discordant come together to define the increasingly malleable nature and terms of participatory politics and the performance of democracy This book explores the emerging sites aesthetics and politics of contemporary dissent as a critical attempt to foreground their mediation and negotiation in an era of neoliberal globalization Contemporary forms of media activism occupy deeply ambivalent spaces which Ardizzoni analyzes using the lens of what she calls matrix activism Rather than confining the analysis to a single platform a single technology or a single social actor matrix activism allows us to explain the hybrid nature of new forms of dissent and resistance as they are located at the intersection of alternative and mainstream non profit and corporate individual and social production and consumption online and offline
