Written by two art therapists with over 35 years of collective supervision experience, this new resource includes a framework for providing effective supervision in the classroom and in the field, case studies, and art-based supervisory exercises and guidance for new professionals seeking certification or licensure. Chapters weave the authors' supervision experience with a significant literature review and feature explanations on how professional identities (art therapist, psychotherapist, counselor, supervisor, supervisee, administrator, educator, etc.) and personal identities (gender, race, sexuality, etc.) influence the supervisory and therapeutic relationships. Spirituality in Systemic Family Therapy Supervision and Training Suzanne M. Coyle, 2022-03-01 This book examines the implications of exploring spirituality through the lens of human relationships. It addresses systemic supervision and training and explores a systemic approach to the development of the self.
