Learning in Study Abroad Wenhao Diao,Emma Trentman,2021-03-04 Vestiges of monolingual bias are present in the portrayal of study abroad as an idealized monolingual immersion experience and the steps many programs take to encourage or enforce target language monolingualism In reality study abroad is often inherently multilingual This book addresses the need for a recognition of the multilingual realities of study abroad across a variety of traditional and non traditional national contexts and target languages The chapters examine multilingual socialization and translanguaging with peers local hosts and instructors how the target language is necessarily entwined in global local and historical contexts and how students negotiate the use of local and global varieties of English Together the chapters present a powerful argument for scholars and study abroad practitioners to consider and critically incorporate multilingual realities into their research and planning

Life Outside The Land of My Birth Gideon M. Mahlangu, 2022-02-09

Wounds that cannot be seen are the most of severe pain compared to those of an eye witness as it is not easy for one to realise that they need medical treatment to cure This book is based on a true life story of Samson Olayiwola Kolawoles who long held the belief that there are better and brighter future prospects ahead of him in South Africa the land that was not of his birth His believe on his future prospects analysis relied mainly on his commitment dedication but above all on the Creator the universe The genesis of his long held belief emanates from the principle A good head and a good heart are at all times of life a powerful and formidable conquering force The publications narration of a life journey provides human intelligence with an insight that as human beings through the unavoidable natural process of life one inadvertently incurs many obligations The truth is that naturally as human beings irrespective of the land of our birth we are born in possession of life obligations and as one grows they accumulate Hence it is important for human beings including Africans to have tranquil relations so that no one can say African parents have committed the biggest debt or sin for giving birth to any African soul The strong belief in African morals values convictions and principles played a great role in the writing of this book One of the principles is that there are many things that one can do to build and take care of planet earth of Africa in particular in this instance Whether we know it or not there are human beings on planet earth who have the potential to destroy it The life journey of the main character motivated the author to feel responsible for doing what is humanly correct and compelling morally which was to devise a means of contributing in reducing the potential of those who are highly committed to destroying the African motherland Above all the trials tribulations and triumphs of the main character inspired the author to write this book The primary aim of the author is to see him self playing a pivotal role in educating imparting and sharing knowledge and information amongst African humanity and the entire world as a part of the contribution to saving the other part of planet earth namely Africa which is important The events of the life journey of the main character have undoubtedly proved how the African world could be destroyed to the point where ultimately there would be no tolerance and no support to each other socially politically or economically as Africans Certainly there is and there will be no other relevant time for Africans to ask that to one another when such happens The underlying question becomes why should we as Africans always allow ourselves to be viewed by the outside world as the people who are incapable of caring of their rich soil and for themselves Is this a curse and you believing so then Africans just accept that you do not belong to Africa but where they belong is nowhere Africans your appearance does not occur to yourselves as being individuals from various African countries but it presents a collective African picture That is why it is imperative to have a good picture about Africa and its people collectively Realise that as people we are viewed in comparison to the behaviour and appearance of others Africans you need to be worthy of trust to one another If there is no confidence and reliability to one another then Africa you are at risk of collapsing The end result is that you will become the advocates and champions of the African pessimism and colonial system of special type agenda Moon Living Abroad Paris Aurelia d'Andrea,2014-11-25 Writer Aurelia d Andrea knows what it takes to make the move to Paris she s done it twice In Moon Living Abroad in Paris she uses her know how to provide insight and firsthand advice on navigating the language and culture of this enchanting city outlining all the information you need to manage your move abroad in a smart organized and straightforward manner Moon Living Abroad in Paris is packed with essential information and must have details on setting up daily life including obtaining visas arranging finances gaining employment choosing schools and finding health care With color and black and white photos illustrations and maps to help you find your bearings Moon Living Abroad in Paris makes the transition process easy for businesspeople adventurers students teachers professionals families couples and retirees looking to relocate Beyond the Language Classroom P.
