The Maker's Instructions David Pawson, 2014-01-14 King Alfred is perhaps best remembered for allowing cakes to become burnt but he did something far more significant and of lasting value He used ten commandments given to the Jewish people centuries before as the foundation of English law He instinctively knew they contained the recipe for a safe and successful society The secret they all contain is respect Respect for God first for his uniqueness his nature his name his special day then respect for each other our families life itself marriage property and reputation Churches have urged members to memorise the Ten Commandments along with the Lord's Prayer and the Apostles Creed often putting all three up on the wall as summaries of the Christian faith and life as well as using them in worship But how can principles laid down so long ago and so far away be relevant to contemporary society Well as one New Testament translator J B Phillips puts it By the straight edge of God's law we find out how crooked we are Only after this discovery are we ready to consider the gospel of Jesus

The Words Said Nursi, 2005 The Words forms the first part of the Risale i Nur collection an approximately 6 000 page Qur'anic commentary In this commentary Bediuzzaman Said Nursi's main concern is how to save and strengthen one's religious belief when confronted with the current prevalent materialist philosophy. It does not explain when or why a verse was revealed but rather the truth that it represents. Subjects discussed are God, resurrection, prophethood, destiny, ego worship, and how the truth of these matters is revealed through nature. The author also analyzes naturalist and materialist philosophy as well as scientific theories and findings and refutes them based on evidence that is clearly apparent in nature itself. Christian Ethics David W. T. Brattston, 2014-10-01 Traditional Christian Ethics features two exhaustive alphabetical lists of affirmative commandments and prohibitions from the earliest Christian ethics as found in writers before the mass apostasy of 249-251 AD. The affirmatives or positives list consists of what Christians were commanded or encouraged to do. The other list is of negatives or prohibitions, i.e. what Christians were discouraged from doing, similarly arranged. The source material for the work encompasses far more than the ten-volume Ante-Nicene Fathers edited by Roberts and Donaldson. It also draws from all writings of the period, Christian, Jewish, and pagan, available in English or French translation, plus a few

Latin translations Some translations have been published only in scholarly journals and some only in the twenty first century Volumes Two and Three form a single exhaustive alphabetical list of affirmative commandments or precepts including mental attitudes i e what Christian ethics commanded or encouraged according to writers on Christian ethics before 250 AD Using earlier drafts of this set of books Dr Brattstons articles and booklets synthesizing early and contemporary Christianity have been published by a wide variety of denominations and ministries in every major English speaking country He hopes readers will use them as a starting point for writing articles papers and sermons of their own
