Cassandra S. Tully de Lope, 2024-03-25 This book addresses Irish identity in Irish literature especially masculinity in some of its forms through an interdisciplinary methodology The study of language performance through literary analysis and corpus studies will enable readers to approach literary texts from both quantitative and qualitative perspectives to take advantage of the texts full potential as well as examining these same texts through the perspective of gender identity This will be carried out through a specialised corpus composed of 18 novels written by twentieth and twenty first century male Irish authors Thus the language and behaviour patterns of contemporary Irish masculinity can be found as part of these male characters performance of identity This book is primarily aimed at undergraduate and graduate students who wish to introduce themselves in the study of gender and identity in an Irish context as well as researchers looking for interdisciplinary methodologies of study What is more it can present researchers with varied options of analysis that corpus studies have not yet touched upon so thoroughly such as masculinity and Irish literature As a monograph meant to show analysts new fields of study in Irish literature this book will sell to academic libraries and can be used in MA courses

The Language of Suspense in Crime Fiction Reshmi Dutta-Flanders, 2017-04-26 This book introduces readers to linguistic stylistic analysis and combines both literary and linguistic analysis to explore suspense in crime fiction Employing critical linguistics discourse analysis and functional grammar it demonstrates that suspense in plot based stories is created through non linear causative presentation of the narrative The author investigates how plot sequence is manipulated to ensure the reader cannot resolve the order of events until the end of the tale From two dimensional circumstantial detection in mystery stories to three dimensional re evaluation of offender orientation she uses a linguistic based stylistic framework to analyse offender motive She also employs a discourse based frame analysis to examine the plot structure of crime stories for micro context and set up

scenarios demonstrating that it is the unravelling of these devices that creates the suspense in murder mysteries and thrillers alike Finally she shows how grammaticization of the offending self reveals an embedded diegetic space in the offender engagement discourse provoking an intellectual and affective response and reshaping our overall outlook of the crime in the story This book will appeal to researchers and students from literary and non literary backgrounds looking for theoretical and practical advice on the linguistic stylistic approach to reading texts

Intralingual Translation of British Novels Linda Pillière, 2021-04-22 Shortlisted for the ESSE 2022 Book Awards Shortlisted for the 2022 SAES AFEA Research Prize Building on an upsurge of interest in the Americanisation of British novels triggered by the Harry Potter series this book explores the various ways that British novels from children s fiction to travelogues and Book Prize winners have been adapted and rewritten for the US market Drawing on a vast corpus of over 80 works and integrating the latest research in multimodality and stylistics Linda Pilli re analyses the modifications introduced to make British English texts more culturally acceptable and accessible to the American English reader From paratextual differences in cover illustrations typeface and footnotes to dialectal changes to lexis tense syntax and punctuation Pilli re explores the sociocultural and ideological pressures involved in intralingual translation and shows how the stylistic effects of such changes including loss of meaning voice rhythm and word play often result in a more muted American edition In doing so she reveals how homing in on numerous small adjustments can provide fascinating insights into the American publishing process and readership
