including Abu Zubaydah remain imprisoned in Guantanamo never charged with any crimes in contravention of America's ideals of justice and due process because their trials would reveal the extreme brutality they experienced Based on four years of intensive reporting on interviews with key protagonists who speak candidly for the first time and on thousands of previously classified documents The Forever Prisoner is a powerful chronicle of a shocking experiment that remains in the headlines twenty years after its inception even as US government officials continue to thwart efforts to expose war crimes Silenced by a CIA pledge to keep him imprisoned and incommunicado forever Abu Zubaydah speaks loudly through these pages prompting the question as to whether he and others remain detained not because of what they did to us but because of what we did to them
