The Routledge Handbook of Tourism in Asia C. Michael Hall,Stephen J. Page,2016-09-13 Asia is regarded as the fastest growing area for international and domestic tourism in the world today and over the next 20 years Given the economic social and environmental importance of tourism in the region there is a need for a comprehensive and readable overview of the critical debates and controversies in tourism in the region and the major factors that are affecting tourism development both now and in the foreseeable future This Handbook provides a contemporary survey of the region and its continued growth and development as a key destination and generator of tourism which is marked by a high proportion of intra regional travel The book is divided into five sections This first section provides an introduction to the region and context to the nationally focused chapters The next three sections are then broadly based on the three UNWTO Asian regions South East Asia South and Central Asia and East and North East Asia providing readers with a valuable snapshot of tourism at various scales and from various approaches and positions The concluding section considers future prospects for tourism in Asia The handbook is interdisciplinary in coverage and is also international in scope through its authorship and content It presents a range of perspectives and understanding of the processes and forces that are shaping tourism in this fascinating and dynamic region that is one of the focal points of global tourism This is essential reading for students researchers and academics interested in tourism in the growth region of Asia now and in the future

Management, Tourism and Smart Technologies Carlos Montenegro,Álvaro Rocha,Juan Manuel Cueva Lovelle,2024-01-03 This book presents advances in the research of various entities in the world which are working on the application of technology or management in tourism. Indeed, one of the sectors hardest hit by the pandemic was tourism; likewise, one of the post-pandemic effects is the rapid recovery of the sector, but more importantly, is the great innovation that has occurred in marketing strategies for tourism using technology and applying management strategies not only to be more profitable but to have the best customer satisfaction. The book is aimed at the general public that seeks to innovate, learn from lessons learned, and establish a knowledge base in mechanisms that apply technology or management in tourism with the aim of improving the experience of all those involved in the business chain. This compendium aims to share all those great experiences and researches in the areas of Management, Tourism Marketing strategies in Management, Tourism and Technology, Technology Applied, Computer Science, Artificial Intelligence, Business Administration, Cloud Computing, Educational Management, Finance, Insurance, and Services Management, Health, Tourism, Human Resource Management, Information Systems, Planning and Management, Information Technologies in Tourism, Internet Technology, Knowledge Management, Management of Supply Chain and Logistics, Marketing Innovation, Robotics, Strategic Management Innovation, Sustainability Management, Technical Economy, Management, Technical Innovation, and Management Technology in Tourism, and Tourist Experience, Tourism Industry, and Ecology, Tourism Management, a total of 77 research projects, and many spaces and relationships between researchers to collaborate in the advancement of science are presented.

Information and Communication Technologies in Tourism

2016 Alessandro Inversini, Roland Schegg, 2016-01-22. The papers presented in this volume advance the state of the art research on digital marketing and social media, mobile computing and responsive web design, semantic technologies and recommender systems, augmented and virtual reality, electronic distribution and online travel reviews, MOOC and eLearning, eGovernment and sharing economy. Affect and Emotion in Tourism Dorina-Maria Buda, Jennie Germann Molz, 2023-03-31. Bringing affect and emotion to the forefront of tourism studies, this book presents a new generation of scholars who consolidate emerging affective approaches and establish a route for scholarship that examines the roles of emotion and affect in tourism. Attuning to affect and emotion, this book steers the affective turn to encompass touring bodies and tourism places. Engaging the concept of affect as a constitutive element of social life often leaves academics grasping for terminology to describe something that is by its very nature beyond words. For this reason, as evident in the four interconnected sections of this volume, studying affect poses a significant and fruitful challenge to the status quo of social scientific method and analysis. From African American emotional labour while travelling to visiting Banksy's Dismaland park to affective heritagescapes, self-love and travelling mittens, and across socio-spatial theories of emotions, decolonial feminist theory and atmospheric politics, this book demonstrates the epistemic and empirical richness of affective tourism. Along with the contributors to this volume

the editors make a case for thinking about emotions and affects through collective and individual practices as interrelated shaping tourism encounters in and with places That is to break it down as doing and as shared between bodies and places through the doing The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Tourism Geographies
